This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

To the HONOURABLE

Charles Delafaye, Esq;

SIR,

THE Generosity and Kindness which you have been pleased to shew me, with the Affection which you bear to the Art of SHORT-HAND, excite and encourage me to present you with this TREATISE, as a Testimony of my Respect, Esteem, and Gratitude, humbly submitting it to your solid and penetrating Judgment.

THE great Use of SHORT-HAND, in your Employment under the Government, for the speedy Dispatch of PUBLICK AFFAIRS, and accurately preserving many Things of the greatest Importance, makes me hope that the Present, though but small, will not be unacceptable.

The PREFACE

To this EIGHTH EDITION.

BREVITY being moſt ſuitable to the Art which I profeſs, I ſhall endeavour to be conciſe in ſhewing the Nature and Uſe of Short-Hand in general, with the Excellency of this New Method in particular.

STENOGRAPHY, or Short-Hand, is the Art of Writing a great deal in a ſhort Time, and ſmall Compaſs.

THIS Art is USEFUL to all Sorts of Perſons, eſpecially to thoſe in great Buſineſs, ſuch as Members of Parliament, Miniſters of State, Gentlemen of the Clergy, Law, and other Profeſſions, both for Diſpatch in what they write for their own Memory, and concealing what they would not have lie open to every Eye; as alſo, for writing rough Draughts, or Copies of Letters, or other Writings, and for taking down Speeches, Sermons, Trials, Plays, &c. Likewiſe for Common-placing, or writing down what is moſt remarkable in any profitable Book: It is alſo very uſeful to Sea-faring Men and Travellers, for keeping a Journal of all Occurrences. By this Art weak and treacherous Memories may be much helped and diſburdened, and the Pains of People's uſual Studies greatly diminiſhed; for by it, as much may be writ in one Hour, and one Page, as otherwiſe in ſix Hours, and ſix Pages: Theſe, and a great many other Uſes and Advantages, may be repeated from this Art, according to every Man's particular Buſineſs; but it is a moſt uſeful and neceſſary Qualification for all young Perſons, and is a great Help and Ornament to their other Learning and Accompliſhments.

As to this New Method, it is needleſs to ſay any Thing concerning the EXCELLENCY thereof, there being ſo many in England (who had formerly learn'd and practis'd other Short-Hands) that can teſtify the ſame from their own Experience: Therefore I ſhall here only inſert the Contents of the Book.

FIRST, There are the Letters of the Alphabet, Prepoſitions and Terminations; by which alone, the longeſt Words in the Engliſh Tongue are wonderfully ſhorten'd.

SECONDLY, There are Words annexed to theſe Letters, Prepoſitions and Terminations, as their SIGNIFICATIONS, which contain or make up, at leaſt, the third Part of any Engliſh Book.

THIRDLY, There is a Catalogue of the Engliſh Pronouns and Particles, pick'd out, which contain or make up another third Part of any Engliſh Book.

FOURTHLY, A general Rule for writing any Word whatſoever, whether Engliſh, Latin, French, &c.

FIFTHLY, Some particular Rules fitted to the Engliſh Tongue, whereby Words in that Tongue are very much ſhorten'd.

SIXTHLY,

Digitized by Google

SIXTHLY, A few joining Rules, directing to join in every Sentence, at leaſt two, three, four, five, ſix, ſeven, or more Words together in one, without taking off the Pen, as it were, in the Twinkling of an Eye, by the SIGNS of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes and Perſons, with the Engliſh Particles, &c. And each of theſe joinings are writ in almoſt half the Time, and half the Room, that they take diſjoin'd, and are a great deal more plain and legible, than if theſe ſeveral Words in one, were all ſeparately written: Beſides, every Joining can be taken aſunder, Word by Word, (if required.) In theſe joining Rules, the Excellency of this New Method doth chiefly conſiſt. Moreover, every Rule has Variety of Examples annexed to it, ſo that there can be no Miſtake.

SEVENTHLY, A Dictionary of the principal and common Words uſed in the Engliſh Tongue, with the Short-Hand over-againſt each Word, which ſerves very much to illuſtrate and exemplify the ſhortning Rules, and will be of great Uſe to the Learner; becauſe he may have recourſe thereto, whenever he is in the leaſt Doubt, how to write any Word by the Rules: Beſides, the Variety of Words therein contain'd will afford Delight, and render the Art the more eaſy and familiar to him. I have alſo added an Abſtract of the ſaid Dictionary, containing ſome of the principal Words therein, which are made ſhorter than what the Rules direct. In this Dictionary, and other Places of the Book, I have taken care to inſert thoſe Words, Terms and Phraſes, commonly uſed in Divinity, and the Law; becauſe Short-Hand is chiefly practis'd, and of great Uſe in theſe two Profeſſions. The Law Words and Terms were procured from ſeveral eminent Counſel, and Gentlemen of the Law, whom I have had the Honour to teach.

EIGHTHLY, A large Specimen, containing ſeveral Pages of Writing in Divinity, and the Law, done by all the Rules, Particles, &c. which will ſerve as a Pattern and School-Maſter, to direct the Learner in Writing and Reading the Method.

NINTHLY, Obſervations and Explications on the Letters, Prepoſitions, Terminations, Significations, Particles, Signs of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes, and Perſons, general and particular ſhortning and joining Rules, Dictionary, Specimen, &c. Together with ſuitable Directions for the right Uſing of this Book.

IN SHORT, the Learner will perceive, that I have ſpared no Pains or Coſt, to make my Method plain and obvious to every ordinary Capacity; for had I wrote only for the Learned, or Ingenious, I could, and ſhould have ſaved above two Thirds of my Labour and Charges; ſo that the Learner needs not be diſcouraged, (but rather encouraged,) at the Bulk of this Book, if he conſiders that it is not the Number of the Rules, but the Dictionary, Specimen, Obſervations, &c. that make it ſo large; which, as I ſaid before, ſerve very much to illuſtrate and exemplify the Rules, and render the Art the more eaſy and familiar.

As to the CHARACTERS, I have deſignedly engrav'd them very large and ſtrong for the Advantage of the Learners; for I think it is not only reaſonable, but very neceſſary, that the Scholar learn from Copies of a bigger Size, than what he ſhould ordinarily write; becauſe every every one naturally comes by Degrees to write a leſs Hand, than he at firſt was taught, but never a bigger: But that this Method will allow of being writ ſmall, and the Lines cloſe, is evident from the Ten Commandments, Lord's Prayer, and Creed, at the End of the Specimen, which I ſhould have compriſed in leſs Compaſs, by making them ſmaller and cloſer, if I had not thought it unneceſſary and ridiculous: For in Short-Hand, the Swiftneſs and Plainneſs of the Method are chiefly to be regarded, and not the Beauty of the Writing, or the Saving a Bit of Paper; and, indeed, it matters not how crooked, or ugly the Writing looks, if it is but ſpeedy and legible.

ANY who are altogether Strangers to Short-Hand, and have the Curioſity to inſpect other Methods, may peruſe that Book, entitled, The neweſt, plaineſt, and beſt Short-Hand extant, compos'd by the learned Mr. Eliſha Coles, Author of the Engliſh and Latin Dictonaries; wherein he gives a brief Account of all the Short-Hand Books extant, with their Alphabets and fundamental Rules, to wit, Mr. Rich's, Maſon's, Shelton's, Metcalf's, Steel's, Willis's, and a great many others; and then he lays down his own Method at large: By this Means, they will plainly ſee the Difference between other Short-Hands and this, both with reſpect to the Method and Engraving. It was printed in the Year 1707, (being the Tenth Edition,) for Mr. Marſhall, and ſold by him, at the Bible in Gracechurch-Street. Price One Shilling.

LASTLY, As to this Performance, I think I may venture to ſay, without Breach of Modeſty or Truth, that this my Method hath ſufficiently recommended itſelf to the PUBLICK; as appears from the many Editions thereof, publiſh'd within theſe few Years paſt; and likewiſe from the great Number of Perſons of both Sexes, who have learned the Art perfectly, by this Book alone; as alſo from my publiſhing, ſeveral Years ago, for the Uſe of the Learners of the Art, the BOOK OF COMMON-PRAYER, in Short-Hand, according to this Method, curiouſly Engrav'd and Authoriz'd by HIS MAJESTY, which hath likewiſe been acceptable to the Publick, as doth alſo appear from the ſeveral Editions thereof; and which is of great Uſe, by Reaſon that it doth not only improve and confirm ſuch as have already learn'd, but alſo very much aſſiſt and inſtruct thoſe that do now, or may hereafter learn this Method; becauſe it illuſtrates and exemplifies the Rules, and ſerves as a Pattern and School-Maſter to direct them; and, indeed, their reading in, and writing now and then a Pſalm, Collect, Epiſtle, or Goſpel, &c. from it, will afford them both Pleaſure and Profit, and render the Art the more eaſy and familiar, and very ſoon enable them to attain to a great Dexterity therein; for it is evident, that Examples are more inſtructive than Rules, and that Practice is the principal Thing which brings Perfection in all Arts and Sciences.

The APPROBATION.

WE, whose NAMES are underwritten, having been taught by Mr. Weston, his New Method of Short-Hand, do in Justice to him affirm, that it does in every Respect very much excel any of the other Short-Hand Methods extant, that we ever perus'd or practis'd, and fully answers what is said of it in the PREFACE to his Book. And we declare, that his Book alone, in our Opinion, is sufficient to teach the Art perfectly to any ordinary Capacity; and that his Method will abundantly recommend itself to every Learner, and fairly answer all Expectations to the greatest Satisfaction. In short, it is our Opinion, that he hath brought the Art to the utmost Perfection which it seems to be capable of, by reason of his Method's being so very speedy and legible, which indeed are the only two essential Properties of Short-Hand, and the principal Design thereof.

N.B. That you may not be at a Loss to know where to begin to make any of the Characters, I have put A Dot (·) Shewing you where to begin such of them as you are most likely to mistake; To wit

Letters, (∧ < c · ɔ · ɘ ∩ ∪ e · ρ σ q · / · ∞ · γ)

To make (⊃ ⊀ lf, rb,) in the Third Lesson; First make (⊃ ⊀) And then come down the same Stroak thus (⊃ ⊃ ⊀ ⊀) By knowing how to make the said (⊃ ⊀) you may easily guess how to write any Joining in the fourth Lesson; As (⊃ ⊂ q ⊀ &c.) Thus (⊃ q) ⊂) ⊂ q) ⊀ &c.

Prepositions, (⊀ · ∩ ∪ ɘ ∫ · ⊾ · ⊾ · ρ ſ ·) To make (⊤ ⊥ ⊢ + ∧) First make (¡ ¡ ¡ ¡ ∧) And then lift off the pen, and make the rest.

Terminations, (ɘ ɔ ρ · e ∩ ∪ ∩ · ⊾ · ρ · ρ · / · Make (∪ ⊃ ρ) Thus (∪ ∪) ⊂ ⊃) ρ ρ) At (⊥ y ɣ) Lift off the pen, thus (¡ ⊥) ¡ y) ¡ ɣ)

Particles, (⊘) is made without taking off the pen, thus, (⊘ ⊘) And (△) thus (∠ △) by taking off the pen & joining it from the top. Make (x) thus (¡ x) All the rest are plain.

Concerning the Termination (-tion, -sion, -son)

FIRST, (-tion, -sion, -son) after A Consonant is made by putting A Dot (·) within the middle of the said Consonant; Example, (Conviction, Compulsion, Compunction, Corruption, Interruption, Person, &c. ⊂ ∿ ⊖ ⊂ ⊀ ⊘) &c. But if the said Consonant hath no middle, Then put A Dot (·) within the middle of some other Letter or Preposition, &c. in that Word which hath A middle; As (Assertion, Redemption, &c. ⊀ ⊀) &c. And if nothing in that Word have A middle (which is rare) Then join (⊙) to the said last Consonant instead of the said middle; As (Mansion, Thomson, Johnson. ⊂ ⊙ ⊂) &c.

SECONDLY, (-tion, -sion, -son) after A Vowel, is made thus, For (-ation, -asion, -ason) Put A Dot (·) above the Top of the Last Letter; As (Translation, Compassion, Mason. ⊢ ∪ ⊖ \ &c.)

For (-ution, -usion, -uson) Put A Dot (·) below ye bottom of the Last Letter; As (Contribution, Confusion ⊂ ⊂ &c.)

For (-etion, -esion, -eson) Put two Dots (··) in the Vowel (E) place of the Last Letter; As (Discretion, Confession ⊢ ·· ⊂ ·· &c.)

For (-ition, -ision, -ison) Put two Dots (··) in the Vowel (I) place of the Last Letter; As (Perdition, Commission ⊘ ·· ⊖ ·· &c.

For (-otion, -osion, -oson) Put two Dots (··) in the Vowel (O) place of the Last Letter; As (Promotion, Devotion ⊾ ·· ∨ ··) &c.

N.B. When (-cian) or any other thing sounds like (-tion, -sion, -son) Then make (-tion, -sion, -son) instead thereof; As (Connexion, Fashion, Grecian, Physician, Goshen. ⊂ L ⊬ ·· ⊬ ··) &c.

Other Examples (Lion, Poet, Suo, Leonis, &c. ∪ ⊂ ⊀ ∪ ⊂) &c. of the Gen: Rules (E from ⊀ ⊂) (S erom ⊬ ⊂) &c. See Obs:

Directions for Writing Short-hand.

HAVING learned the first Six Lessons, with the five Significations, and Places of the five vowels; It follows next in order to give Directions for writing Short-hand, for which observe these Two things; First Directions How to Shorten your Words in your own mind, Secondly, Directions for Writing of them when Shortned.

First, Shorten your word in your own mind, by throwing away all Silent & Superfluous Letters that are not Sounded. To help you thereto, Observe the following particulars.

The J^st^, and principal one is this, When Two, or three Vowels come together in any English word, Then one of the five (a, e, i, o, u,) will Sound the Word, So as that you may, at the first pronouncing, tell what it is, It being your own Native Language Example (Beauty,) may be Sounded by (Buty,) (Good) by (gud,) (Paul) by (pal,) (fruit) by (frut) &c.

2dly, When two Consonants of one name come together in A Word, as (dd, gg, ll, mm, pp,) &c Then one of them will Sound the Word, & so you must throw away ye other. Example, (Command) may be Sounded by (Comand,) and (Supplement) by (Suplement,) &c.

3dly (e) At the end of Words, not Sounded may be left out, As (Save, Starve,) may be Sounded by (Sav, Starv,) for if you were to pronounce the (e,) Then these Words Would read (Sa-ve, Star-ve,) being two Syllables; Which you know they do not so read, And so of all the rest that end with Silent (e.)

4^thly^, Many times Syllables, or Words, beginning with (h) may be Sounded without the (h,) As, (Honour) may be founded by (onour,) &c. (h) not being properly A Letter.

5^thly^

5 thly, (ck) may be sounded by (k) As (Rock, Stock, Black,) may be sounded by (Rok, Stok, blak,) &c.

6 thly (ct) may be sounded by (k) As (Act) by (Ak) &c.

7 thly, (dg, dge,) may be sounded by (g,) As (Knowledge) by (Knowleg) &c.

8 thly Syllables, or Words, beginning with (kn) may be Sounded by (n) As (Knack) by (nack) &c.

9 thly (n) having A vowel before it, may be sounded by one of the 5 vowels, As (Lan, blon, flon, Son, gron, Crown,) may be sounded by (La, blo, flo, So, gro, crun,) &c.

10 thly (wr) beginning A Syllable or word, may be sounded by (r) As (wrut, wrong,) by (rit, rong,) &c.

11 thly (gh) is not pronounced in many words, & Consequently may be left out, As (Daughter, right, light, Sight, might, fighting) may be Sounded by (Dater, ryt, rit, lyt, Syt, myt, fyting,) &c. And Sometimes (gh) may be Sounded by (f) As (Laugh) by (Laf) &c. And often times (in North Britain) (gh) may be sounded by (k) or (ch) As (Sigh) by (Sik) or (Sich)

12 thly (ph) may be Sounded by (f) As (phylick, pharisee, Pharaoh, Joseph) By (fisik, farisi, faro, Josef) &c.

13 thly Words of more Syllables than one, Ending in (or, ir, er, ur, our,) may be Sounded by ye Termination (er) As (Labour) by (Laber) &c.

14 thly Words of more Syllables than one, Ending in (al, el, il, ol, ul,) may be Sounded by (el) or (le) And then throw away the (e) because it is not pronounced, As (Pistol) may be sounded by (Pistel) or (Pistle) &c.

15 thly Words ending in (ous) or (ious,) may be Sounded by (us) As (Religious) by (Religus,) &c.

16 thly, Sometimes (z) may be Sounded by (s) As (Baptized) by (Baptised) &c.

17 thly (sh) at the end of A Word may be sounded by (s) As Bush, blackish,) by (Bus, blakis,) &c.

18 Sometimes (b) after (m) is not pronounced, & Consequently may be left out, As (Dumb, Tomb,) &c. The Same may be said of (b) before (t) As (Doubt) &c.

And so throw away all other Silent & Superfluous Letters.

Letters, that are not Sounded, or pronounced. Thus you see By this Art, Words are not written according to true Or-thography, or exact Spelling, but only according to their Shortest & most natural Sound; Though indeed, When you Copy over any foreign Language, out of A Book, which you do not understand, You must Spell it according to the Book, Because you are not Sure, but every Letter of the Word is Sounded, & consequently must be written. Yea, If you please, you may write your own native Language exactly as it is Spelled, though you know the Words there-in to Sound Shorter: But then, thus to write Words of your own native Language, is not only Needless, but Tedious, yea, Rediculous, & foolish, & Contrary to the Design of all Short-writing, which is to write Words, according to their Shortest and most natural Sound, So as but to be understood.

Secondly, Having thus Shorted your Word in your own mind, Observe (for writing it) the following General Rule.

Your Word must either begin with A vowel, or with A Single, Double, or triple Consonant, or with A Preposition, or Termination. Therefore write which of these your Word begins with, & never lift the pen, till you come to A vowel, And then lift the pen thereat, and write what follows in the said vowels place; & if nothing follow, but that your Word end with y said vowel Then lift the pen thereat, & put A dot (·) in the same vowels place, And so go on, though your Word were never so long: By never lifting off y pen, till you come to A vowel, and then lift the pen thereat & put what follows in the same vowels place, And if nothing follow, but that your Word end with the said vowel Then lift the pen thereat, & put A dot (·) in the same vowels place, As hath been said. Example, (Og, oga, ogu, ogan, ogest, ogesta, ogestard, ogestardu, contempt, Temple, temples tuous, discount, countenance, preserve, -ing, -ed, -er, -eth, -ation, preservation, &c.)

See the 1.st chap: of John's Gospel all written by this General Rule.

So you See by this General Rule, That you can write any Word whatsoever, Whether Long, or Short, of whatever Language, be the Words Sense, or Nonsense.

Only Remember, When A Word ends with (S.) the Sign of the plural number, and A Consonant goes before the said (S.) Then lift the pen at the (S.) and put A dot (·) behind the said Last Consonant, instead of the said (S.) Making the dot (·) last. Example, (Rams, rags, rols, pots, Lands, Comands, Demands, &c

And because A dot (·) cannot be put behind the Consonant (n—) or the Terminations (- ——) So as to be plainly understood, in regard they want A back, Therefore put A dot (·) exactly underneath them, at the Left hand, Thus. (Stons, bons, Songs, Lungs, doings, Longings) &c.

You See that this dot (·) is not in the vowel (u) place, for you know it's place is thus (· · ·)

But if your Word end with (S) and A vowel go before the said (S.) Then observe your General Rule, By lifting your pen at the said vowel, & putting the (S) in it's place

Example.

Example, (Gloſs, glas, Loſs, Las, Loſses, Lans Las; beauties,)

Except when your Word ends with (-nces) Then make it thus (-c) and not (-c|) Becauſe (-c) Stands for (nce)
Example, (Dunces -c) &c.

Obſerve The Letter (c) Sounds ſometimes like (k) and ſometimes like (s) As (Crown, krown, Cloy, kloy, &c. Proceed, proſeed, &c.) Therefore when (c) Sounds like (k) Then make (k) always inſtead thereof. Example, (Club, crown, crun, Scab, Scruple, reſcue, reſcu, diſcuſs) &c.

Excepting always, When that (c) which Sounds like (k) begins A Word, & A vowel comes immediatly after (c) In that caſe write (c) Becauſe (c) is ſooner made than (k)
Example, (Caſt, coſt, cat, cut, -ing, cap, cup, coach, cuſtom, &c)

But when (c) Sounds like (s) Then write always (s) inſtead thereof. Example, (Century, proceed, precanct, precink, &c.)

Except When (-nce) comes, Then make (nc-c) & not (ns-) Example, (Advance, Inſolence, convince, -ing, -ed) &c.

Obſerve, All this Writing by the General Rule, is only Long Short-hand, (As I may call it) & does not deſerve the Name of Short-hand, & is only the Method, by which we write Foreign Languages which we do not underſtand, with uncommon Names of Places, Sirnames of Men, &c. But how to write the Engliſh Tongue, Three times Shorter, Speedier, & plainer, Shall be ſhewn you afterwards.—

But before you meddle with the following Shortning & Joining Rules, Moods, Tenſes, Particles, &c. It is moſt proper, & abſolutely neceſsary, that you write the 1ſt & 2d Chap: of John's Goſpel diſtinctly from your Bible by the foregoing General Rule, & be able to read them perfectly when done, In order to make you underſtand y Places of the the 5 vowels (a, e, y, o, u) and to exercise your Prepositions, & Terminations, when you meet with any of them; & to make you the more perfect, & exact, in remembring the Significations of the Letters of the Alphabet, Double & triple Consonants, &c. Which contain or make up, at least the Third part of any English book. — see Obs:

PARTICULAR RULES
For making Words SHORTER than can be done by the foregoing General Rule.

1.st Shortning Rule.

When Two Consonants of one name come together, with one of the five vowels (a, e, y, o, u,) between them, Whether in the beginning, middle, or end of Words; — Then write that Consonant as big again, instead of them both, & the vowel between them; As if these following, (mam, lel, gig, dod, fuf) &c were to come in the Beginning, middle, or end of Words, Then write them as in the margin; So that A Large (m) will Stand for either (mam, mem, mim, mom, or mum,) Which the Sense will immediatly discover. And so of all the rest of the Consonants, as well as (m) Example.

(Memory, mortgage, -ing, popery, resist, renounce, parallel &c.)

Not ( ) &c. As you know is done by the General Rule.

2.d Shortning Rule.

You know (b, d, g, k, p, t,) do sound (be, de, ge, ke, pe, te,) Therefore ( ) will read (b, d, g, k, p, t,) Or otherwise (be, de, ge, ke, pe, te) Which the Sense will discover.

Again

Again you know (f, l, m, n, r, s, x) do sound (ef, el, em, en, er, es, ex) And therefore ( ) will read (f, l, m, n, r, s, x) Or otherwise (ef, el, em, en, er, es, ex) Which the Sense will likewise immediatly discover; So that you See there are 13 of the principal Letters of the Alphabet To wit (b, d, g, k, p, t,) (f, l, m, n, r, s, x,) that contain the Sound of (e,) The first 6; containing the Sound of (e) after them & y last 7 containing the Sound of (e) before them. As to the first 6 To wit, (b, d, g, k, p, t) Observe, If (be, de, ge, ke, pe, te,) come in the beginning or middle of Words, Then throw away the (e) & join what follows, to the said (b, d, g, k, p, t,) Because each of these 6 Letters, contains y Sound of the vowel (e) after them. Example (Beg, den, get, - ing, kettle, pedant, tender, compel, Rebekah, redeem - ing, - ed, reflect, condemn, condem &c,)

But if (be, de, ge, ke, pe, te) end your words Then observe your General Rule, by lifting the pen at the said vowel (e) & putting A dot (·) in its place: Though indeed I don't know of 6 English Words that end with (be, de, ge, ke, pe, te,) having the (e) Sounded or pronounced, But there are very many words in the Latin & other Tongues, that thus end, & have the (e) Sounded, which must be likewise writ by your General Rule, by putting A dot (·) in the vowel (e's) place.

Again As to the last 7 To wit, (f, l, m, n, r, s, x) Observe, If (ef, el, em, en, er, es, ex) come in the beginning of Words, Then throw away the (e) Because each of these 7 Letters Contains the Sound of (e) before them. Example, (Effusion, elder, ember, ending, eruption, escape, exact, &c.)

And if (ef, el, em, en, er, es, ex) come in the middle or End of Words, Then throw away the (e) likewise & Joyn the Said (f, l, m, n, r, s, x,) to whatever goes before them Because each of these 7 contains the sound of (e) before them. Example,

(Herm,) (Learn, Lern) (Lest,) (best,) (Sex,) &c.

Yea

Directions &c. 2d. Shortning Rule.

Yea, By this 2d. Rule, Whenever (a, i, y, o, u,) comes in any Word, immediatly after the first 6, or before ye last 7, Yet if you can pronounce, or Sound that word by (e) instead of (a, i, y, o, u,) So as only to be understood; Then join these 13 Letters, without lifting off the pen, as was before directed. Example, (Reprobate) may be Sounded very well by (reprobet) And so may be writ thus ( ) Not thus ( ) And so of these following — a	Salvation / Selvation	not	o	Consolation / Conselation	not blame / blem	not		Desolation / Deselation	not i y	Conspiring / Conspering	not	u	Consult / Conselt	not

	Stint / Stent	not		Contribute / Contribet	not

But if (a, i, y, o, u,) cannot be Sounded by (e) So as to be understood by the pronunciation, (As you will often find in Words of one Syllable); Then observe your General Rule; As (Sum, Loan, Dull, &c) To be sure can never be Sounded by (Sem, Len, Dell,) So as to be understood by the pronunciation; Therefore write them thus, ( ) According to your General Rule: And indeed, When I say (a, i, y, o, u,) may be Sometimes Changed into (e) I mean chiefly of Long Words, at least of 2, 3, 4, 5, or more Syllables; for an (e) writ instead of an (a, i, y, o, or, u,) in A Long word, can never mar the reading of that Word; As (Conseltation) for (Consultation,) For we often see that bad Spellers, Not only put one Letter for another; But also Sometimes Leave out Letters in A Long word; And yet that Word can be read by the very Sound, & especially by the Sense and Connexion.

Observe, Do not mistake, by thinking that every (b, d, g, k, p, t,) or every (f, l, m, n, r, s, x,) must be joined; As for Example, (Set) must be writ thus, ( ) and not joined; And ye reason is plain; because (s) doth not Sound (se,) but (es,) Neither doth (t) Sound (et,) but (te,) And so (meddle, seek, led, fed,) &c (for the same reason) must be writ thus, ( ) for neither of the Consonants going before, or after the (e) sound the (e) But it is only that (b, d, g, k, p, t,) which must be joined that hath (e) going after them, & that (f, l, m, n, r, s, x,) which have (e) going before them; As I said before.

Perhaps you may think that the (ed) in (Led & fed) ought to be made by (ɔ) joined; Because the Termination (=ed) is made by (ɔ) joined; But then consider that the (ed) in (led, fed,) is not A Termination; for when (ed) is A Termination it hath always A Compleat Word, or at least A Syllable going before (=ed) As (Compel,=ed,) (blame,=ed,) (Look,=ed,) (Wicked, wick-ed,)

But (Led, fed,) have neither.

Be Sure to get the first 6, & the last 7 Letters separately & distinctly by heart; that so you may remember them when ever you have occasion to throw away the (e) which will be almost in every Word.

This 2d. Rule hath A great tendency to quick & Speedy writing, Because it will prevent A great many Liftings off of your pen; The same may be said of the foregoing First Shortning Rule. Besides both these Rules may be apply'd to any Foreign Language, as Latin, French, &c. as well as the English, If you have but the least knowledge of these Tongues, or Languages.

3d. Shortning Rule.

You know the Words following are called Persons, To wit,

1st	2d	3d	1st	2d	3d
J,	thou,	he, she, it,	we,	ye,	they,

Therefore, Observe that the Word (called the verb) belonging to the Second Person (thou) hath always {st / est} added to it: Also observe that the said Word or verb belonging to the Third Person (he, she, it), hath always {th / eth / s} added to it more than all the rest of the Persons.

(J, we, ye, they,) Example

Example

1st. I Speak the Truth.

2d. thou { Speak'st / Speakest } the Truth.

3d. he { Speak'th / Speaketh / Speaks.... } the Truth.

3d. she { Speak'th / Speaketh / Speaks.... } the Truth.

3d. it { Speak'th / Speaketh / Speaks.... } the Truth.

1st We Speak the Truth.

2d. Ye Speak the Truth.

3d. They Speak the Truth

Therefore, Leave out the (St, est) ('th, eth, s) and write them all alike, Thus.

I Speak the Truth	1 ſ / 6
thou Speak the Truth	8 ſ / 6
he Speak the Truth	9 ſ / 6
she Speak the Truth	9 ſ / 6
it Speak the Truth	7 ſ / 6
we Speak the Truth	1 ſ / 6
ye Speak the Truth	8 ſ / 6
they Speak the Truth	5 ſ / 6

For, the Senſe will inſtantly force you, (when you come to read what you have written) to pronounce y (St, est,) (th, eth, s) he / She / it } Speak the Truth.

Becauſe,

Thou Speak the Truth.

are Nonſenſe.

Obſerve, Whether (thou) (he, she, it) go before, or after the Word (or verb) It is the ſame thing Still throw away the ('st, est) ('th, eth, s) As, Speak'st / Speakest } thou the Truth.

Speak'th / Speaketh / Speaks } he the Truth &c.

Alſo Obſerve, Whether (thou, he, ſhe, it) or ſome other Word Signifying them, As, (Who, which, that, John, &c.) go before or after the Word (or verb) It is the ſame thing Still throw away the (St, est) ('th, eth, s,) Example.

I ſpeak to you James that deſpiſeſt all Inſtruction.

Write only (deſpiſe)

Who wanteth victuals?

A Lyar delights in Lying.

James Seeketh Riches.

The Cat catcheth Mice &c.

Write only

(Want, delight, ſeek, catch,)

For, (As I ſaid before) The Senſe will inſtantly force you to pronounce the (St, est,) ('th, eth, s,)

You will have occaſion for uſing this 3d. Shortning Rule, almoſt once, or twice in every Sentence.

N. B. By no means throw away the (-ing, -ed, -er,)

at the end of the said Words (or verbs) But only the (st, est) ('th, eth, s.) As (Plot, -ing, -ed, -er, -est, -eth, -s.) must be writ thus ( ) &c.

For the sake of the unlearned I thought proper to add these few Lines following.

Do not mistake by thinking that every (st, est,) that ends words is thrown away for (Rest, best, dust, lust, &c.) are written thus..... ( ) &c.

But it is only the (st, est,) of that Word (called the verb,) which hath (thou,) or something that Signifies (Thou,) going before or after it, As I said before.

Neither mistake by thinking that every ('th, eth, s,) that ends Words is thrown away, For (Faith, death, Loss, &c.) are written thus..... ( ) &c.)

But it is only the ('th, eth, s) of that Word (called the verb) which hath (he, she, it,) or Something that Signifie- them going before or after it, As was said before.

4th Shortning Rule.

Observe (-ly) at the end of A Word, having A Consonant going before it, is made by putting A dot (·) in the vowel (y's) place of the Said Consonant. Example (Gladly, fitly, meekly, Justly, weakly, Wisely, wisly, &c.) ( ) &c.)

So that this dot (·) in the vowel (y's) place, will either read (-y) or (-ly) Which the Sense will instantly discover: As ( ) will either read (Glady) or (Gladly) &so of y'e rest.

But if (-ly) end your Word & A vowel go before it: Then throw away the (-ly) & put A dot (·) in the said vowels place instead of the vowel and (-ly) Example. (Day-ly, slow-ly, due-ly, sly-ly, through-ly, worthy-ly, &c.)

N. B: That the Word Which thus ends with (-ly) With the former part of that Word without the (-ly) must be two Compleat English Words, of the same Signification As (meek-ly,) (sly-ly,) (Speedy-Speedily,) &c.

But

But if otherwise; then observe your foregoing General, & particular Shortning Rules, Example.
(Mr. Bodly, Mr. Bedly, Belly, Bely, Bully, Silly, &c.)

Observe, As to the last part, of this 4th Rule; The Sense & connexion will immediatly distinguish & discover, Whether (⊃. ∪.) Stands for (Due, or Duely,) (Slow, or Slowly) & So of all the rest.

This 4th Rule will Shorten A great number of Words in the English tongue; There being above Five Thousand Words in that Tongue; called Adjectives — And there are Scarce any of them, but what will admit or allow of (=ly) to be added to them in the Positive Degree As (Weak=ly, poor=ly, hard=ly, wicked=ly,) &c. Observe, These Words thus ending in (=ly) are called by the Learned Adverbs; Though indeed there are A great many Words in the English Tongue ending in (=ly) besides Adverbs, Which must be also writ by this 4th Rule.

5th Shortning Rule.

When A Word ends with (=ful, =fully, =fulness,) having A Consonant going before them; Then make the said Consonant as big again, instead of the said Consonant. & (=ful) And then put A dot (·) in the vowel (y's) place of the said big Consonant, for (=fully,) And then joyn (s) to the said big Consonant for (=fulness) Example,
(Shame=ful=fully=fulness,) (Doubt=ful=fully=fulness)
(Bashful=fully,=fulness,) (Right=ful,=fully,=fulness. &c.)

So that this big Consonant (m \ ) in the first Example (Shameful) will read either (mam, mem, mim, mom, mum) according to the first Shortning Rule; or otherwise it will read (=mful) according to this 5th Shortning Rule One of these Two it must read, which y Sense will instantly discover, And so of all the rest of the big Consonants

Only

Only with this Difference, To wit, When this big Consonant (m \) Stands for (=mful) It is always at the End of A Word: But it can Stand for (mam, mem, mim, mom, mum,) either in the Beginning, middle, or end of Words: The same may be said of all the rest of the big Consonants as well as (m \) You will see further Examples of this 5th Rule, in your Alphabetical Table of Shortned Words; where you will find that whatever your Shortned Words end with (except it ends with A dot (·) When (=ful) is added to it: Then that (=ful) is made by making the Last Letter of ye said Shortned word as big again, and consequently (=fully,) is made by putting A Dot (·) in the (ye) place of the said big Letter; & (=fulness) by joyning (s) to the same big Letter: Example,

(Mercy, =ful, =fully, =fulness,) (Faith, =ful, =fully, =fulness)

(Sloath =ful, =fully, =fulness,) (Forget =ful, =fully, =fulness &c)

But if your Word end with (=ful, =fully, =fulness,) and A vowel goes before them; Then observe your foregoing General Rule, by putting ( ) in the said vowels place, Example (Joy =ful, =fully, =fulness,) &c.

This Rule will Shorten above Six hundred Words in the English Tongue; for A great part of these Words called Adjectives, end with (=ful) And then there are Scarce any of them that so end, but what will admit or allow of (=ly) & (=ness) to be joined to the said (=ful) As, (Grateful, =fully, =fulness,) (Doleful, =fully, =fulness,) &c

6th Shortning Rule.

When A Word ends with (=less, =lessly, =lessness,) having A Consonant going before them, Then Joyn ( ) to the said Consonant instead of the said (=less, =less ly, =less ness,) Example.

Need,

Digitized by Google

(Need = needless = lessly = lessness,) (Boundless, &c.)

So that this (|) Joined at the end of A Word will either read (= es) according to the Second Shortning Rule Because (|) Sounds (= es) Or otherwise it will read (= less) according to this Sixth Shortning Rule; One of these two it must read, which the Sense will instantly discover: So that ( ) must either read (Need-es,) or (needless) (Bound-es) or (Boundless) And so of all the rest. They can never read (Needs, Bounds,) Because (s) at the end of A Word (the Sign of the plural number) having A Consonant going before it, is made by putting A dot (·) behind the said Consonant; As you may see by ye latter part of your General Rule; Whereby (Needs, Bounds,) must be writ thus ( ) Now, if (= less) made by (|) joined, be plain (As I have shown above) Then (= lessly, lessness,) made by (|) are no less plain.

Observe, If any Word end with (= lies) having A Consonant going before it; Then throw away the (i) and it will read (= les) which hath the same sound with (= less) And therefore may be written accordingly by this 6th Rule. Example, (Families) Shortned (Famles) is writ thus ( ) &c

You will see more Examples of this Sixth Rule in your Table of Shortned Words.

But if your Word end with (= less = lessly = lessness) & A vowel go before them; Then observe your foregoing General Rule, by putting ( ) in the said vowels place; Example, (Lawless,) Shortned (Laless) is writ thus ..... ( ) &c

This Rule will Shorten above Five hundred Words in the English tongue, For A great part of these Words called Adjectives, end with (= less) And these (for the most part) will admit or allow of (= ly) & (= ness) to be joined to the said (= less,) Besides, These Words that end with (= ful, = fully, = fulness;) in the 5th Shortning Rule will (for the most part) admit of (less, = lessly, = lessness) to be joined to them, as well as (= ful, &c.) As, (Faith-ful,-less,) (Shame-ful,-less,) (Need-ful,-less,) &c.

Faith,

Observe, the foregoing Six are more frequently made use of, than all the Rest of the following Shortning Rules.

7th Shortning Rule.

For (Through or Thoron) Draw (/) through the following Word, Writing first the following Word, & then (/) through it, Drawing it from the bottom to the top;

Example (through Grace) (through Faith) (through Spite,)

(through him) (through whom) (through the Grace of God) &c.

But if (Through or Thoron) do not belong to y following Word; Or if they end your Sentence, Then observe your foregoing General Rule, by writing (f.) instead thereof, As,

(He thrust him through with Daggers) (The Water did not run thoron /) f. &c

Observe, every Word will admit of (/) to be drawn through it, Except (in ·) Which is only A Dot (·) See Obs:

8th Shortning Rule.

For (over) Whether it be A Word it self, or the beginning of another Word, Draw A Line thus (——) over whatever follows the said (Over) Writing first the Word, and then drawing (——) over it, Example,

(Over all the Earth) (Look over him) (Over the Brook)

(Overcome-ing) (Overlook,-ing,-ed) (Overtake) (over-much) &c.

But if (over) do not belong to the following Word, Or if it end your Sentence Then observe your foregoing General Rule, by writing (r) instead thereof As,

(He came over & then Spoke) (They took Ship & came over) &c

See Observ:

9th. Shortning Rule.

When one, two, or more Words, or Sentences, are immediatly repeated, Then draw A Line thus (——) under them, for every such Repetition; Drawing the Line last. Example (Saul, Saul, why &c) (Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty) (Rev. 4. 8.) (They cried out Crucify him, crucify him,) (O! what shall I do? What shall I do?) &c

10th. Shortning Rule.

When two Words of A Contrary Signification come together with A Word or two between them; Then write the first Contrary Word and afterwards Draw A Line through the middle of it thus (——) instead of the other Contrary Word, and that which goes between them. Example.

(Life and Death) (Light or Darkness) (Sons nor Daughters)

(from darkness to Light) (To run to & fro) (Both high & Low)

(Rich & poor) (up & down) (Back & fore) (From the East to y West)

(Both the Just and the unjust) (Neither the Rich nor y Poor) &c.

11th. Shortning Rule.

When two Words of One Name come together with A Word or two between them, Then write the first of them, as big again, instead of the Other; and that which goes between them. Example.

(The Savour of Life unto Life) (The Savour of Death unto death)

(Line upon Line) (Precept upon Precept)

(Here A Little, & there A Little)

12.th Shortning Rule.

When A Word ends with (=est,) the Sign of the Superlative Degree, having A Consonant going before the said (=est,) Then Joyn (/ t) to the said Consonant instead thereof: Example, (Meekest, boldest, weakest, blackest, vilest, &c.

So that this (/) Joyned at the end of A Word will either read (t) or (=est.) Which the Sense will instantly discover; Or, if you please, you may Joyn (⌋) to the said Consonant, instead of (=est.) And indeed it will be sometimes necessary so to do: As (Leanest) That is to say (very Lean) &c.

You know that ('st, =est) the Sign of the 2.d Person, (Thou) is wholly thrown away by your 3.d Shortning Rule. As for (Thou Speakest the Truth) we write (Thou Speak the Truth) You may know the (=est) in this Rule, from the (=est) in the 3.d Rule, by reason the (=est) in this Rule, is A Sign of one of the three Comparisons; As, (Meek, meeker, meekest) (Bold, bolder, boldest) &c.

But if your Word end with (=est) the Sign of y Superla=tive Degree, and A vowel go before the said (=est;) Then observe your foregoing General Rule, by putting (⌋) in y said vowel's place: As (Slowest) Shortned (Slöest) &c.

13.th Shortning Rule.

For (-kind) at the end of any Word, make (∩ k) through the middle of the last Letter, or Letters, that go before (-kind) Writing the (∩) last; Example. (Bird-kind

Digitized by Google

(Bird-kind) (Mule-kind) &c
But (Man-kind, Woman-kind) are shortned thus ( )

14th Shortning Rule.

When A Word ends with (-nward) Then Joyn (7 nv) there to instead of (-nward) Example.
(South-nward, Home-nward, Renard, ing, ed, er, &c.)
You will see more Examples of (-ward) among the Particles. &c As (Upnward) &c.

So that this (7 nv) at the end of A Word, will either read (-nward) by this 14th Shortning Rule, Or otherwise It will read (Woman or Women) by one of your following Joining Rules, Which the Sense will instantly discover. It can never read (nv) Because Words ending with (nv) have always A vowel going before the said (nv) And both that vowel & (nv) can be Sounded by one of the Five vowels, As, (Lan, Den, flon, &c.) may be Sounded by (La, du, flo,) And so may be writ thus ( ) &c.

15th Shortning Rule.

When (Forth) comes after any verb, ending with A Consonant, Then joyn (o th) to the said verb, Instead of (Forth) Example, (Hold forth, Set forth, Shining forth, Shined forth &c)

But if (Forth) come after any verb ending with A vowel, Then writ (o th) in the said vowels place, instead of the said (Forth) Example.
(Go forth) (Shew forth) (Fly forth) &c
So that this (o) joyned, or disjoyned at the end of A verb, will either read (-th) or (forth) which the sense will instantly discover: It can never read (-eth) the Sign of the Third Person, For you know that the (-eth) there is wholly thrown away by your Third Shortning

Rule

Rule. Therefore the above Examples ( ) can never read (Holdeth, Setteth, goeth, Sheweth) For by the said Third Shortning Rule; you must only write (hold, Set, go, Shew;) Thus, ( ) &c.

16.th Shortning Rule.

When (Up, or Down) come after any Verb, Ending with A Consonant, Then joyn ( ) to the said Verb instead of them. Example, (Sit up, Sit down, Come up, Come down, brought up) &c.

(Fly up, fly down, go up, go down, throw up, throw down)

(Brought out, Set out, Went out, come out, find out,) &c.

Directions &c. 1st Joining Rule.

You will see further Examples of this Rule, in your Table of Joining the Moods & Tenses to one another, page 14 & 15. Where you will find that these 20 can be joined to one another at least 72 several different ways You will likewise see further Examples in this & the next Page of Joining ye Persons, & negative (Not) to these Moods & Tenses, Where you will find that each of these 72 can be changed 40 different ways, by Joining the Persons (1 ɣ ϑ ϑ 7 1 ɣ ϑ) & the Negative (not ——) to them; So that 40 times 72 Amounts to 2880, And each of these 2880 contains at least, two, three, four, five, or more Words join'd in one, writ without lifting off the Pen in the twinkling of an Eye; And if you can change One of the 72 fourty ways, you can change ye remaining 71 fourty ways also. Take an Example of Two of the Seventy two changed for the present, as A Pattern to direct you, how to change the remaining 70. ——

Can, Cannot.

I can,	thou,	he,	she,	it,	we,	ye,	they,
I cannot,
Can I,
Can I not,
Cannot I,

You See there are five Lines with Eight Joinings in every Line, The Second Line is exactly like the first, Except (Not) added to it, and the fourth Line is exactly like the third, Except (Not) added to it ——

Another

Another of the 72 } (Would have been) ((Would not have been))

I would have	been. thou,	he,	she,	it,	we,	ye,	they.
I would not	have been.
Would I have	been.
Would I not	have been.
Would not I	have been.

You See this Second Example is like the first. The same may be said of all ye rest of the 72.

You

You may observe, That all these Joinings are writ in almost half the time, & half the Room that they take disjoined, and are A great deal more plain, than if every one of these Words, were all Separately written, That is to say ( ) is not so plain & Legible as ..... ( ) And the Reasons are evident, Because the very first Sight of So many Words joined in one Shows that they are the Signs of the English Moods Tenses, Persons, & Negative (Not). And these Signs instantly discover themselves. Again, They are more plain, in regard you See the Sign of the Mood, Tense, Person, &c. all at-once, with one glance of your Eye, & therefore cannot miss presently to know what the Sentence, or Joining Stands for.

Again Observe, you cannot be at A Loss, how to join these two, three, four, or more Words together in one, if you only know how to join all y^e Letters of y^e Alphabet to one another, Which your Table page 2^d instructs you to do; As if you were to join these five Words together in one, To writ, ( ) That Table will direct you to do it thus, ()

Also observe, It is very necessary, that you learn these 29 Signs by heart, that you may know to join them, when-ever you meet with them, Repeat them thus, (Naming only the first Word) Do, did, was, have, had, Shall, will, may, can, might, would, Should, could, ought, must, be, am, are, is, Let, done, been, I, thou, he, she, it, we, ye, they, Not.

Lastly Observe, That, (Do, done, may, they,) by your General Rule are writ thus () But are here Shortned thus ..... () without taking off the pen, because they are often made use of. Remember, the Terminations (-clude, -claim,) are writ big thus () But (Do, may,) are writ thus ( ) Besides, The joining of the other Moods, Tenses, Persons, & (Not) to (Do, may,) will instantly discover them from (-clude, -claim,) As ( ) &c.

(He spoke)(he spoke not,)(spoke he,)(spoke he not,)(spoke not he,)(James spoke not,)(James would speak,) James would not speak,)(ye would speak,)(ye would not speak,)(would ye speak,)(would ye not speak,) (would not ye speak,)(They should have been Observ=ing,=ed)(they should not have been observing,=ed) &c.(they paying dammage)(they not paying dam=mage)(not desiring to impose &c)(it did not discover) (discover thou not,)(ye will be discovering,=ed,)(he overcame not,)(overcame not thou,)(I debar,)(Debar not thou,)(ye are debarring,=ed,)(flyest thou,)(he flyeth not,)(he will not increase)(increase not thou)(go not thou)(they go up, down, forth, out,)(he taketh)(he will take)(he hath taken)(thou takest)(ye toss)(he did plant &c.

J. Observe, As you join the Nominative Cases (1 ɣ ϑϑ 7 1 ɣ ϑ) to the aforesaid Signs and verb &c. so you must also join these following Nominative Cases to the same Signs and verb; &c. because they are very plain: To wit 1.st  2.dly All the Pronouns which  end with (=self,) or (=selves) as &c.

See Pronouns p. 18. 3.dly

3dly All the Adjective Pronouns, when they have no Substantive after them, As, With As also, these Adjectives, when they have no Substantive after them, To wit, Examples. (He himself proclaimed,) (your own self believed) (his own received strength) (ours are making,) (these believed not) (what hath been spoken) (who spoke) (he who spoke) (he that believeth) (which was made) (they which were made) (One shall call) (another shall answer,) &c.
2dly Observe, As you join the Adverb (Not) so you must also Join all the Conjunctions, and Adverbs (If they will join conveniently) Except these Adverbs ending in (-ly) formed from Nouns adjective, and except ( ) and ( ) when they stand for (how) and (none, nothing) for you will find that these Conjunctions & Adverbs will be very plain, when they are joined to the Signs of the Moods, Tenses, Persons, verb, &c. Example, (Men never speak,) (they will never speak) (you will neither observe, nor obey) (and they believed and said) (Why will ye dye) (though you speak) (yet he will not answer) (So he desired) (Then you should never fight, as you resolved) (I did so) you spoke so) (he did so perform) &c.
Yea, If two, or three of these Conjunctions, or Adverbs shall happen to come together, then you must Join them to the said persons, moods, Tenses, verb, &c. Example, (and therefore he reserved) (and yet when they brought) (So that they absolved) (and when another knew) &c.

Only

Only I make the Adverb (so) at the end of the following Sentences, by A dot (·) in the (o) place To wit, (It is so) (It is not so) (Is it so) (Is it not so) (Is not it so) Thus . But, if you please, you may write them by your Rules, thus.

N. B. Do not Join the Verb, or Participle, nor any other thing Immediatly after the Sign (IS) Except (he, she, it,) or (not) come after the said (IS) Because not plain Example (Man is making) (is he making) (God is not making) (is it made &c) (&c.)

Explications

1. You see, by this Rule, that no Nominative Case is joined to the Signs of the Moods, Tenses, verb, Participle, Adverbs, or Conjunctions, Except the Pronouns, &c. With &c. Example, (The Bottles are preserved) (they are preserved, &c. &c.

2 When you are to Join any thing to ( ) (nor, neither, whether) or to any other Word ending with this (=er) Then change ( ) into ( ) See Examp: before

3. If there be one or more Dots (·) in any Joining, by this, or the following Joining Rules, Then be sure to Join the Words to one another first, And to make the Dots last; Making the Dot (·) next the Right-hand first, and then the Dot (·) next to that, and so on, making the Dot (·) next the Left-hand last; Example, (Now they fly &c.) ( ) Except the Dot (·) stand for (in = un =) the Initial Syllable of the first Word in the Joining; and then 'tis made first; As (Increase not thou) ( ) And except (forth, up, down, out) come after the verb, ending with A dot (·) Then they are put in the Dots (·) place, by your 15, 16 & 17 Shortning Rules; as (they fly up &c) Again, When (Who, whoso, any, already, also, only, so, though, why) come in the beginning or middle of any Joining, I commonly put the next Word in the Dots place. (See the foregoing Examples) But, if you please,

Digitized by Google

You may Join (forth, up, down, out) to the Verb; As also, the next Word to O. A. &c. and make the Dot (·) last, Example, (they go up) (he who made) (Why will ye dye &c. [illegible] [illegible] &c. But I think the former way is better.

4. Though (et, lt, rt, ut, yt) are writ thus ([illegible]) drawing the (/) upwards; Yet when A Word begins with (/) it is always drawn downwards, as (Toss, take, &c. [illegible] [illegible]. Therefore whenever your Verb, or Participle begins with (/) and is to be joined to any Word ending with [illegible] or with any thing else, Then draw the (/) downwards; Example, (he taketh) (he will take) (he hath taken &c. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. Because every Word joined must stand exactly as it does when disjoined; and then it is known immediatly.

5. You know there are Two (p.s) and two (s.s) Therefore write that (p) or (s) in the Joining which is in the Disjoining; Example, (thou didst plant) (thou didst Supplant &c. [illegible] [illegible] &c.

3.d Joining Rule.

Join the Pronouns (governed) to the said Verb, or Participle (governing them) And that whether these Pronouns refer to Persons, or Things, or to Both; and whether they come immediatly after the verb or Participle, or after the Negative (Not ——) or other Adverbs, or Conjunctions, Or after the Persons, ([illegible]) or other Pronouns; And leave out the (to, or unto) Because when you come to read what you have written, the Sense will instantly force you to pronounce the (to, or unto.)

Example, (He recommends him) (they recommend themselves) (he recommends himself unto you) (They desire you not) (they desire not you) (Ye spoke unto us) (they neither told it to you) (they never told you it) (Preserve thou them) (said they never unto you) (fly thou now unto me) (When will ye Send them to us)

Dis-

(Discover them not by Sending them)(he recovering it to me)(he observed mine, comparing yours)(he received his own)(he came to his own)(thou shalt not bow down thy self unto them, nor serve them)(Why did not you serve him so)(
Only Remember, When you are to join the Pronoun (thee) to the said verb &c. Then join ( ) and not (/) Example (They converted thee by Speaking unto thee, &c. (&c.)

Again, As you join the Pronouns to the said Verb, &c. So you must also Join these following, To wit, With  Because some of them are A Sort of Pronouns, and all of them do often occur, and are very plain when joined; Example (He received this by Seeking that which he lost)(What said he whom you compelled)(they perceived one Speaking to another) &c.
Explications.

1. You See that no Case governed by the Verb, or Participle is joined, Except the Cases of the Pronouns, With Example, (he Spoke treason)(he spoke it)(you Transported Robbers)(you Transported them) (

2. Disjoin these Pronouns &c. governed, if they happen to be placed before the Verb, or Participle; Because they are then out of their Natural Order: Example, (Him they received not)(to me they Spoke  for are in their natural Order. But, Still the Relatives,  With are placed before the Verb, &c. Example, (Which he Sent)(that they Sold)(Whom I received) (What ye reserved) (This he performed) (Whom he spoke to) (To whom he spoke &c.

received

N. B. The Three foregoing Joining Rules, having Dependance one upon another, might have been Comprised in One, thus. Join the Verb, or Participle, to what belongs to them; To wit, the Signs of the Moods, Tenses, Adverbs, and Conjunctions, with the Pronouns agreeing with, and governed by the said Verb or Participle, Example, You should not have served them) (When will they send it unto us &c.
4th. Joining Rule.

Join the said Conjunctions, Adverbs, and Signs of the Moods and Tenses, to one another, whenever they come together; Although some other Word, or Words happen to be the Nominative Case to the Verb, instead of the Pronouns, &c. above mentioned.

Example,

(And whenever God rebuked him) (And therefore James would never speak) (So that the people have received) (Yet when A Daughter will not take &c.) (And yet when Children or Parents are preserved &c) (And if Wise persons should &c.) (When therefore the best of the Nation perceived &c.) (When should the Rich protect &c.) (And why should not Weak persons recommend &c)
Yea, you must Join these Conjunctions, Adverbs, Moods, Tenses, and Persons, to one another, whenever they come together; although the Verb be left out (as it sometimes is) and although some other Words, or A Sentence come between them, and ye Verb;

Example

Example, (If you keep by me, and I, by you, then &c.) (i.e. and I keep by you) (He received you more kindly, than ever, (i.e. than ever he did) (When you, after Supper, have gone &c) (And when will you, & your Daughter resolve &c) (Shall not they, by observing them, receive honour, &c.
N.B. You see this Rule Directs to Join the Conjunctions, Adverbs, &c. together, without the Verb.

5th. Joining Rule.

Join the next Word after the aforesaid Signs, () (not including IS) I say, after any of these Thirty Three Signs, you must always Join the next Word, that comes after them, if it belongs to them: for as these Signs are plain, so the next Word joined to them, must also be plain.

Example,

(Did God speak) (Did not God speak) (Did not he wisely speak) (He did wisely speak) (Did he wisely Speak) (They spoke wisely) (They wisely spoke) (spoke he wisely) (Did James not tell you) (Did not James tell you) (Thomas hath been bold) (He shall be boldly attacked) (he shall boldly be attacked) (they were dust) (Ye were dumb) (Was not you rich) (they had Children) (Shall boys reprove me) (They do good) (have ye Estates) (If you are wise &c.) (Is he meek) (Is he meekly reproved) (Is it fit) (Let meekness teach you) (he hath done good) (Do it neatly) (by doing evil) (They being sly) (being richly decked) (Being learning &c.) (being taught) (he having received &c.) (they having been taught) (having kindly &c.)
Directions &c. 6th. Joining Rule.

But if the next Word after any of the said Signs, happen to be (A, an, the,) or (to) the Sign of the Infinitive Mood, or some other Word that does not belong to these Signs; Then you must not Join them; Example, (shall A Man be transformed &c.) (Did an Ox kill him) (should not the King rule &c.) (He commanded you to speak to me) (Are ye, by agreement, bound &c.) ffor (A, an, the,) always stand disjoined: And so does (to) the Sign of the Infinitive Mood. Except (to have, to do, to be. ) Observations.

1. This Rule will Join (in Interrogative Sentences) Nominative Cases of Nouns, as well as Pronouns.
2. It will also Join Adverbs, ending in (-ly) &c. Which you could not do by the first 4 Joining Rules.

6th. Joining Rule.

Join the Pronouns (governed) to the following Prepositions (governing them) To wit.

Above	a	Beneath		Near, Near to		Than
About		Beside, s		Nigh, Nigh to		Through
According to		Between, Betwixt		Next, Next to		To
After		Beyond		O, Oh	e	Toward, s
Against		By		Of, off	e	Under
Among, st		Concerning		On	e	Underneath
At		For		Out, Out of		Upon
Before		From		Over		With
Behind		Instead of		Over against		Within
Below		Into, Unto		Round about		Without

Example.

Digitized by Google

Example, (He spoke wisely to me) (Spoke he wisely to you) (unto us they sent) (you will be perceived by them) (He came by his own, in sending for yours, which lay beside it) (They sat below her, and you stood above them, and over against me) (They complained within themselves concerning it, and about you) (Did they go over them, round about his, and through yours) (He did it according to mine, and better than yours,) (It did not come out of them) (They sat near us, instead of you) (O thou, O ye) (Look before thee, at me, on us, nigh them, next himself, beyond themselves) (You take it from us) (you bought of them) (Run towards me, &c.)
For the Pronoun (thee) Join (ɣ) and not (/) As, (They Complained against thee)  &c.

As you join the Pronouns to these Prepositions so you must also Join these foregoing Words To wit With Because some of them are A sort of Pronouns, and all of them do often occur, and are very plain when joined, Example, (He run from this to that) (Among whom) (after which) (from what) (He spoke before one, and after another &c.  &c.

Observations.

1. You see, that no Case governed by the Preposition is Joined, Except the Case of the Pronouns, With  Example, (He spoke against God for riches)  &c.

2. By this Rule, There are only Two Words joined together, To wit, A Preposition and Pronoun, Except when (self, selves) or (own) or both, are added to the Pronoun, to make the Expression Stronger, Example, (By my self) (among st this own) (About their own selves) &c.

When

Digitized by Google

3. I need not have named the 40 Prepositions particularly, But only told you, in General, to join the Pronoun, to the Word going before it, for it must be one of the 40, or A Verb, or Participle, As you will see by the Third Joining Rule. N.B. The Preposition (In) being A Dot (·) cannot have any thing joined to it

4. The Prepositions, denoting the SIGNS of Cases, I have therefore added the Signs (O, than)

7th Joining Rule.

Join the Substantive to any Adjective going before it. Example,

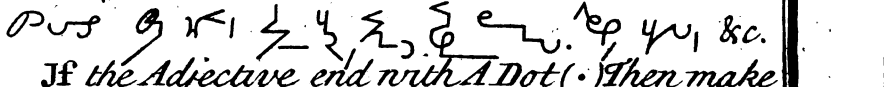
(A faithful Servant) (A Whiter skin) (A viler person) (The blackest Dog) (A dancing Maid) (A Shaved face) (his Book) (his own Son) (your Daughter) (their Child) (their own Children) (This Land) (that Bird) (Which dulness) (What state) (more Boys) (most Wine) (Good meat) (better food) (best Companion) (one fly) (another pot) (great Lies &c.)



If the Adjective end with A Dot (·) Then make that dot (·) last; As, (Dry throat) (No Maid)

Except When (Any, my, thy,) comes; Then put the Substantive in the dot's (·) place; As, (Any Compassion) (my sister) (thy Relation)

Only, (any Man, any Woman) are writ thus

Or in the vowels place, as the rest; thus Throw away the dot (·) at the Adjective (Every) because it is plain without it; As, (Every Duke &c.

Again,

Again, If the Substantive happens to be (Man, or Men, Woman or Women) Then join (\ 7) instead thereof; As, (Good Man, bad Men, Sly Woman, Moreover, If the Signs of Comparison (more, most, or very,) come before the Adjective and Substantive, Then join them all three together; if they will join conveniently; As (More able Person) (Most humble Servant) (your very &c.

Likewise, If Two Adjectives come together, before A Substantive, and the first of them happen to be A Pronoun-Adjective, Then join them all three together, if they will join conveniently; As, (Your humble Servant) (His own kind Son, &c. &c But do not join any other Two Adjectives and Substantive together, Because they will not be plain, &c. And if Three Adjectives come together before A Substantive, and the first of them happen to be A Pronoun-Adjective, Then join the first Two together, in one Joining, if they will join conveniently, And then join the Last Adjective and Substantive together in another Joining; As, (Your rejected humble ser.t

Observations.

1. As you join the Adjective and Substantive together; so you must also Join any Two Words together, that are put for, or used as an Adjective and Substantive, or partake of their Nature, If they will join conveniently. Example (All good shall &c.) (All mine are thine) (A little one) (A little bigger than &c.) (more wise than &c.) (Ye are most wise, & good) (very wise, so wise, too wise, as wise, &c.) (ye do it more wisely) (most wisely, very wisely, so wisely, too wisely, as wisely &c.

Where you see that the Epithets (More, most, very, too, so, as, Little, &c.) Express the Nature and Quality &c. of (Wise, wisely) &c.

2. If

Digitized by Google

2. If the Substantive go before the Adjective Then they must not be joined, As, (The day appointed) (A lawyer skilful in Matters Criminal, &c.)

3. You see by this Rule, that the Adjectives and Substantive stand joined by themselves, and have not any thing else joined to them, As, (his Daughter shall praise your Son, before my face)
Directions for Leaving out Letters & Words, Which the Sense & Connexion will Supply.

J.st Leave out (S) the Sign of the Genitive Case, when A Consonant goes before (S) As, (Men's nature, (your Daughter's Book) (Gordon's Geography) (the King's Son) (James's Wife's portion &c. But if A vowel go before (S) Then make (I) As, (The ffly's skin) (the Ruby's Lustre) Not And so the Word, or Sign (IS) may be shortned by (S) and joined to the foregoing Word, if it ends with A vowel; But no otherwise; As, for (The ffly is perished) (The Ruby is bright) Write (The ffly's perished) (The Ruby's bright) thus,  (The Daughter is best Not

2. Leave out (S) the Sign of the Plural number, when A Consonant goes before (S) As, for (Gods, Boats, &c.) write (God, Boat) thus Not As by your Rule; But if A vowel goes before (S) Then write (I) by your Rule; As, (The Crons, Sloes, Beauties, &c. Not &c.

3. When you are perfect in this Art, and happen to write in Publick, and be Straitned in Time; But, no otherwise) Then leave out the Articles (a, an, the,) With (of, of a, of an, of the,) being seven in all.

See Observations for the Reason of Leaving out things.

The End of the RULES.

OBSERVATIONS, &c.

OBSERVATIONS on the Letters of the Alphabet.

AS to the Letters, I have made Choice of Mr. Metcalf's Alphabet, becauſe I take it to be the beſt that is, or can be contrived, as I have endeavoured to demonſtrate in my Copy-Book, engrav'd for the Uſe of my Scholars.

I HOPE I need not make any Apology for uſing this Alphabet, becauſe it is very well known that I muſt make uſe of ſome Alphabet; and that all the Alphabets yet extant, whether invented before or ſince Mr. Metcalf's, contain the ſame Characters, only with this Difference, that the Character which one Author makes ſtand for the Letter [a,] another Author makes it ſtand for (n,) another for [p,] another for (t,) &c. as is evident from Mr. Cole's Short-Hand Book, wherein he ſets down all their Alphabets, with his own. And I may venture to affirm, that none can invent a Short-Hand Alphabet (good for any thing,) but what muſt contain the Characters here made uſe of for (c, d, k, l, m, n, ſ, t, &c.) becauſe no Strokes or Lines can be more ſimple or eaſy, or join more readily and diſtinctly to one another; ſo that there is no ſuch thing as making an Alphabet ENTIRELY NEW, (as ſome vainly boaſt:) But, indeed, any Alphabet is of very little Uſe if not rightly applied to, and ſupported by proper Shortning and Joining Rules, &c. which leads me to acquaint the Learner, that I have applied the Letters of the Alphabet quite different from what Mr. Metcalf has done, as is plain by comparing the Ten Commandments and Lord's Prayer written by his Method, in the Beginning of his Book, with the ſame Ten Commandments and Lord's Prayer at the End of my Specimen; where the Learner will perceive that there is no Likeneſs or Compariſon. The ſame may be ſaid, when compared with the Writing done by any other Method extant. The Reaſon of the two Short-Hand (p's) and two Short-Hand (f's) is for Diſtinction ſake, as you will ſee afterwards. You ſee one Character ſtands for both (i j,) and another Character for (u v,) which the Word itſelf, or the Senſe and Connexion will immediately diſtinguiſh. The Character for (q,) ſtands likewiſe for (qu,) becauſe (u) always comes after (q.)

Digitized by Google

OBSERVE, 1ſt, Every Letter of the Alphabet muſt be written without taking off the Pen. 2dly, The Bodies of all the Letters muſt be of an equal Bigneſs. 3dly, The Tops and Bottoms of ſuch of the Letters as have any, muſt be of an equal Length with the Bodies of the ſame Letters. 4thly, The Strokes or Lines of all the Letters muſt be of an equal Fineneſs; that is to ſay, you muſt only touch the Paper with the Pen, either in going up, down, round, forward, backward, or ſloping; for you muſt not ſqueeze, or lean hard on the Pen, nor make one Line, or Part of a Line of any Letter, or Character, in your Writing, thicker, or blacker than another; becauſe ſqueezing or leaning hard, will occaſion you to miſhape the Characters, ſpoil the Pen, tire the Hand, and take up longer Time in the Writing.

THE Page, after the Abſtract of the Dictionary, will ſhew you where to begin to make any of the CHARACTERS that you are moſt likely to miſtake.

LEARN this firſt Leſſon, according to the Directions in the laſt Leaf of this Book.

OBSERVATIONS on the Joinings of the Letters.

CONCERNING the two (p's) and two (ſ's,) you ſee by the ſecond and third Leſſons, that the laſt (p) is only writ when (ſ) goes before (p;) and that the laſt (ſ) is only writ when (b) or (n) comes after (ſ;) for (ſb ſn) made by the firſt (ſ) would not be plain or diſtinct. You may alſo ſee, by the ſaid ſecond and third Leſſons, that for (c) I make (k,) as for (cl, cr, ſcr,) I make (kl, kr, ſkr,) becauſe they ſound the Word as well, and are more lineal and ſooner writ than (cl, cr, ſcr.) The other double and treble Conſonants that begin and end Words, as (ch, th, thr, &c.) are contained among the Prepoſitions and Terminations. The (e) at the End of the double and treble Conſonants which end Words, is not pronounced, and conſequently is not written in this Art: Therefore (ble,) or its Character, is only to be read (bl,) naming the Letters; and ſo of all the reſt.

LEARN the ſecond and third Leſſon in their Order, one after another, as you did the firſt. Be ſure to write ſlowly and exactly at firſt, for you will daily write ſwifter. By no means meddle with the ſecond Leſſon till you are perfect in the firſt; nor with the third, till you are perfect in the ſecond; and ſo of all the reſt of the Leſſons.

THE fourth Leſſon is of great Uſe; for it teaches you to join all the double or treble Conſonants that can happen to come in the Beginning, Middle, or End of Words; as alſo to join four, five, ſix, ſeven, or more Letters together, as well as two: As for Example, if you were to join (k, l, m, n, o, p) together, firſt look how (kl) are joined, then look how (lm, &c.) Likewiſe it will teach you to join Letters, Prepoſitions, Terminations, or any thing elſe together; becauſe theſe Prepoſitions, &c. muſt begin and end like ſome of the Letters of the Alphabet. In ſhort, when you come to join two, three, four, five, ſix, ſeven, or more Words together together in one, (by your Rules,) without lifting off the Pen, as it were in the Twinkling of an Eye, then this Table will teach you how to do it, it being no more than joining the firſt Letter of the following Word to the laſt Letter of the foregoing Word. Every one of the ſix hundred and ſeventy-ſix Joinings, in this Table, are all different and diſtinct. There are a few of them which I have ſhortened deſignedly, as (il, iv, &c.) to ſave Time and Room, in regard they are ſome of the Prepoſitions, Terminations, SIGNS of the Moods, Tenſes, &c. which are much uſed. The Dot (.) at one of the Joinings of the two (p's*)* and two (ſ's*)* is of no Uſe, but to point out, which of the two is ſooneſt writ, tho' indeed both are very uſeful.

OBSERVE, tho' there are 26 Lines of Joinings in this Table, or fourth Leſſon, to wit, (aa, ab, ac, ad, &c. to az.) (ba, bb, bc, bd, &c. to bz.) (ca, cb, cc, cd, &c. to cz.) (da, &c.) yet if you are perfect only in 5 Lines of the ſame Table, to wit, (ma, mb, mc, md, &c. to mz.) (na, nb, nc, nd, &c. to nz.) (ſa, ſb, &c. to ſz.) (ta, tb, &c. to tz.) (ua, ub, &c. to uz.) then you know the whole Table, becauſe the other 21 Letters, to wit, (a, b, c, d, &c.) do, and muſt end like the ſaid 5 Letters (m, n, ſ, t, u,) that is to ſay, ſloping towards the right Hand, like (m.) or ſtraight out, like (n.) or directly down, like (ſ.) or ſloping towards the left Hand, like (t.) or end at the Top like, (u.) thus; the Short-Hand (a, b,) end like the Short-Hand (m.) and (c, ſ, o, z, and the laſt p,) end like (n.) and (g, h, i, k, p, q, and the laſt s,) end like (s.) and (d, w, x,) end like (t.) and (e, l, r, y,) end like (u.) ſo that, as I hinted before, if you can join (a, b, c, &c.) to (n,) then you can alſo join the ſaid (a, b, c, &c.) to (ſ, &c.) becauſe the laſt Stroke of the (ſ) ends like (n,) and indeed it is an (n.) The ſame may be ſaid with reſpect to the other four Letters, as well as (n:) Therefore you muſt be very perfect in the ſaid 5 Lines of Joinings, to wit, (m, n, s, t, u.)

IN ſhort, if you can write any Letter ſingly, or alone by itſelf, you can alſo write any Joining in the ſecond, third, and fourth Leſſon; or even join any 3, 4, 5, 6, or more of the Letters to one another, without looking thereon, becauſe the general Rule for Joining is, to begin to write the ſecond Letter where you leave off at the firſt, and to begin to write the third Letter where you leave off at the ſecond, and to begin to write the fourth Letter where you leave off at the third, and ſo on.

LEARN this fourth Leſſon, by tranſcribing it in your Copy-Book exactly from my Copy: And be ſure to look on at every Joining therein. Then try if you can write it over, on a Paper apart, from your Memory, and afterwards compare it with my Copy. But if you think that the writing of all the 26 Lines, from your Memory, will be too tedious, then write only the ſaid 5 Lines, (m, n, s, t, u:) And to try whether you are perfect in this fourth Leſſon, write a Sentence or two out of any Book by it, and join all the Letters in one Word together, without taking off the Pen, tho' the Joinings ſhould be ever ſo crooked, or run down ever ſo far below the Line; and, for that end, keep the Lines at a wide Diſtance from one another, about the Breadth of an Inch.

OBSERVATIONS on the Prepoſitions and Terminations.

OBSERVE, the firſt, fifth, and ſixth Leſſons are the three hardeſt Leſſons in Short-Hand, becauſe they contain all the CHARACTERS uſed in this Method, and are, as it were, three different and diſtinct Alphabets; the firſt, for the Letters of the Alphabet; the ſecond, for the Beginnings of long Words; and the third, for the Endings of long Words; and, upon that account, are the Foundation of this Art, and therefore ought to be perfectly learned: For as to the Characters in the ſecond, third, and fourth Leſſons, they are no more than the Joining of two, three, or more of the Letters of the Alphabet together. And with reſpect to theſe Prepoſitions and Terminations, which begin and end long Words, it is not to be ſuppoſed that they can be written Letter for Letter; Example, (tranſ-) and (-ſcribe,) can never be ſuppoſed to be written at Length, with a Short-Hand (t, r, a, n, ſ,) and (ſ, c, r, i, b, e,) and ſo of ſome others, for that would be almoſt as tedious as the Long-Hand, or common way of Writing: Beſides, there being above fifteen thouſand Words in the Engliſh Tongue, beginning with one or other of theſe 67 Prepoſitions; and above twenty thouſand Words in the ſame Tongue, ending with one or other of theſe 73 Terminations, (as appears from the Dictionary) there was an abſolute neceſſity for making them ſhorter than could be done by the Letters of the Alphabet; tho' the Learner may perceive that theſe Terminations ending in (-y,) or (-ly,) and (-tion, -ſion, -ſon,) (-ation, -aſion, -aſon,) (-ution, -uſion, -uſon,) are done by Rules, and conſequently might have been left out; and that there are ſome more of theſe Terminations, with a great many of the Prepoſitions, which are made up exactly of the Letters of the Alphabet, and therefore do not, in the leaſt, burden the Memory: And, indeed, they might have been all compoſed out of the Letters of the Alphabet, and ſhortened by them; but then they would have been more tedious in Writing, and puzzling in Reading, and conſequently not have anſwered the Ends of Short-Hand, which are to be ſpeedy and legible: Beſides, the contracting or ſhortening of them by one or two Letters of the Alphabet, does ſtill burden the Memory a little as well as MARKS; as for Example, if you were to ſhorten the Prepoſition (tranſ-) by any two Letters of the Short-Hand Alphabet, as, (tr, ta, tn, ts, ns, &c.) any of theſe, in my Opinion, is almoſt as hard to remember as a MARK, becauſe no Rule or Reaſon can be given why (tr, &c.) ſhould ſtand for (tranſ-.) The ſame may be ſaid, with reſpect to the other Prepoſitions, and likewiſe to the Terminations, which are made by MARKS: Beſides, (tr, &c. for (tranſ-) would be puzzling in the Reading, (as was hinted before) becauſe they would claſh or interfere with theſe Letters themſelves, and you could not readily tell, whether that (tr, &c.) ſtands for (tr, &c.) or (tranſ-:) And it would be ſtill more puzzling in the Reading, if you were to join, in every Sentence, (as you muſt do) two, or more more Words together, by Rules, (as it were in the Twinkling of an Eye) if there were no more Marks or Characters in the Method, than these for the 26 Letters of the Alphabet; for it would be impossible to tell, either where one Word, in the Joining, begins, or where another ends: Whereas the MARKS, for the Beginnings and Endings of long Words, instantly discover themselves, and shew where the Words begin and end, because of their being remarkably plain and distinct from the Letters of the Alphabet, as appears from the Writing. And indeed it is impossible, by the Help of so few Characters as 26, for the Letters of the Alphabet, (be they ever so well contrived) or all their several different Combinations or Joinings, to take down so much as one third Part of any Discourse.

AGAIN observe, if you discount these Prepositions and Terminations which are made by the Letters themselves, and by Rules, then you will find that there are no more Characters used in this Method than 95, and which are the Foundation of this Art, and are contained in the first, fifth, and sixth Lessons: For as to the Characters in the second, third and fourth Lessons, they are no more than the Joining of two, or more of the Letters of the Alphabet together, as I said before; so that the Learning of 95 Characters, in order to obtain a speedy and legible Method of Short-Hand, cannot be reckoned a great Charge on the Memory, especially if it be considered that a Child, in order to read the Bible, and write the common Round-Hand, must learn and remember at least 104 different Characters, or Letters, to wit, 26 capital, or great Letters, in the Roman-Print, to wit, (A, B, &c.) and 26 small Letters, in the same Roman-Print, to wit, (a, b, &c.) and 26 capital, or great Letters, that are written in the Round-Hand, and 26 small Letters, that are written in the same Round-Hand; and these are, besides the 26 capital, and 26 small Letters, in the old English Print, used in Acts of Parliament, &c. tho' a Gentleman of the Law, &c. must learn and remember a great many more Letters, to wit, about 26 capital, and 26 small Letters, in the Secretary-Hand, and the same Number in the Court-Hand, and about as many in the Greek, which amount, in all, to above three hundred different Characters.

ALSO observe, these 95 Characters may be learned by reading and writing them nine or ten times carefully over. When you are perfect in these 95 Characters, so as to be able to read and write any of them, when desired, without looking on your first, fifth, and sixth Lessons, then you will, every Day, remember them better and better, because you must meet with some of them in every English Word you write, whether the Word be long or short: And as for Swiftness in Writing and Reading, that is daily increased by Practice.

An EXPLICATION of the Prepoſitions and Terminations.

THE Prepoſitions, in the fifth Leſſon, are placed in an Alphabetical Order; but the Terminations, in the ſixth Leſſon, are placed in their natural Order, by putting the Participles (-ing, -ed, &c.) firſt, becauſe they moſt frequently happen; tho', if you pleaſe, you may ſoon reduce them into an Alphabetical Order.

As for theſe Prepoſitions and Terminations that ſtand for two, or more Things, as (tran- or tranſ-) &c. the Senſe and Connexion of the Diſcourſe will immediately diſtinguiſh and diſcover which of them the Character ſtands for.

PRONOUNCE ſuch of the Prepoſitions as will pronounce, which they will all do, except four, to wit, (ch-, th-, thr-, wh-,) which you muſt read by the Letters. Pronounce the Terminations after the ſame manner.

I KNOW that the Prepoſitions, (ch-, th-, wh-,) are written otherwiſe by your fourth Leſſon; but there being ſuch a prodigious Number of Words beginning with theſe three, as appears by the Dictionary, they are ſhortened as they ſtand in the fifth Leſſon, the laſt two being downright MARKS: And as for the firſt, there can be no Miſtake, becauſe no Word can begin with (ch;) beſides, (ch,) by your fourth Leſſon, is written with a ſhort (t;) but ſtill the (ch, th, wh,) written according to the fourth Leſſon, are very uſeful, as if one Word were to end with (c, t, or w,) and the next Word to begin with (h;) if theſe two Words are to be joined together, (by your Rules) then, to be ſure, they muſt be joined according to the ſaid fourth Leſſon.

THE Character for (ap-, op-, up-,) is a MARK, and not (kp.)

THE Character for (com-, cum-,) is alſo a MARK, and is no ways like (le.)

THE Prepoſition (comp-) beginning ſo many Words, is a little ſhortened, and is not written agreeable to (com-, cum-,) by joining a (p) after the ſaid (com-, cnm-;) nor is (comp-) any wiſe like (lp.)

As to the Prepoſitions (ad-, al-, circum-,) obſerve, no Word can begin with (ſd-, nl-, cn-,) and ſo there can be no Miſtake.

As to the Prepoſition (ac-,) I know that there are Words beginning with (ſc;) but inſtead thereof, I always make (ſk-,) as appears from the ſecond and third Leſſons, ſo that there can be no Miſtake; and to make (ac-) at Length would be tedious.

As to the Prepoſition (car-, cor-, cur-,) when it ſtands for (&c.) it always ſtands alone; but when it ſtands for (car-, cor-, cur-,) there is always ſomething joined after it, to make up the full Word, as (Corruption, &c.)

THE Prepoſition (it-,) you ſee, is alſo a little ſhortened.

THE Prepoſition (or-, o'er-, over-,) is no wiſe like (ſr; beſides, (ſr-) cannot begin any Word, and ſo there can be no Miſtake.

THE Prepoſition (ſub-) is not like (ſn-,) beginning Words, in the ſecond ſecond Leſſon; nor is it like (ſn,) in the Middle of Words, in the fourth Leſſon.

Digitized by Google

THE Prepoſition (ſuf-) is exactly (ſf,) and as (ſf-) cannot begin any Word, there can be no miſtake.

As to the Prepoſitions (ſup-, ſuper-,) obſerve, when a Word begins with (p-,) or (pr-,) it is made by the other (p,) as you will ſee by the ſecond Leſſon, and ſo there cannot be the leaſt Miſtake.

THE Prepoſitions (var-, ver-, verſ-, vert-,) is a different Character from (ſu,) and ſo cannot be miſtaken for (ſu.)

AND ſo is the Prepoſition (uſ-) a little different from the Letters (u, s,) in the fourth Leſſon.

YOU ſee that there are four Characters that ſtand for Prepoſitions and Terminations, to wit, (de-, di-, -ed,) &c. but theſe four are plain, for if a Word begins with a Short-Hand (d) joined, you muſt read it (de- or di-,) but if a Word ends with the ſaid (d) joined, you muſt read it, (-ed,) and ſo of the other three. The Obſervations on the five Vowels Places, with the Page after the Abſtract of the Dictionary, concerning the (-tion, -ſion, -ſon,) will immediately make you underſtand the Dots (.) at the Terminations. Remember that (-er) at the End of a Word, is ſometimes made by a Short-Hand (r,) and ſometimes by the third Part of the Length of a Short-Hand (m.) It is made by the (r) when that which goes before (-er) contains the Half of the Letter (r,) as Words ending in (-ger, -der, -ſer, -ter, &c.) where you may ſee that the Foot of (g, d, ſ, t,) contain the firſt Part of the Letter (r.) Again, (-er) is made by the third Part of the Length of (m,) when that which goes before (-er) doth not contain the Half of (r,) as Words ending in (-ber, -fer, -ler, -ner, &c.) where you may ſee that no Part of (r) is contained in (b, f, &c.) But obſerve, this third Part of the Length of (m) is never uſed, except at the End of Words, and is always joined, and ſtands for (-er.)

AGAIN obſerve, (th-) beginning Words is made by its own Character among the Prepoſitions; but (-th, -eth,) ending Words, are made by the little round (o) among the Terminations. Moreover obſerve, that the Character for the firſt Termination is only half the Length of (n,) and the Character for the laſt Termination is twice the Length of (n.) I know there is no good Engliſh Word ending in (-temption,) or (-temptation,) and ſo I might have left them out. The Character for (temp- or -tempt,) ſtands always in the Beginning or End of Words for (temp- or -tempt,) and not for (mp;) for (mp) is made by the other (p.)

THE ſetting down the Prepoſitions and Terminations promiſcuouſly in the fourth Page, will ſerve as a School-Maſter to dodge you, and to try whether you are perfect in them, or not. You muſt be very exact in that puzzling Paper and firſt Leſſon, becauſe theſe two contain the whole Foundation of this new Method; for you will find that every thing is formed out of the Letters, Prepoſitions, and Terminations, except about ſixteen Words, at the End of the Abſtract of the Dictionary; and even theſe, if you pleaſe, may be formed out of them likewiſe.

THE Page, after the Abſtract of the Dictionary, will ſhew you where to begin to make any of the Characters, in the fifth and ſixth Leſſon, that you are moſt likely to miſtake.

MAKE a Dot [.] at once, with one Touch of your Pen; without turning the Pen round.

LEARN the fifth and ſixth Leſſon, in order, one after another, as you did the firſt. You muſt be ſo perfect in theſe Propoſitions and Terminations, as to be able inſtantly to read or write any of them, when deſired, without looking on the Copy.

LASTLY, (by way of Digreſſion) From what hath been ſaid, with relation to the Characters, in the fifth and ſixth Leſſon, I may infer, that it is really very ridiculous, and abſurd, (if not worſe) in a certain Perſon, to amuſe and triſle with the PUBLIC, for theſe twenty Years paſt, by vainly boaſting, in ſix ſeveral printed Propoſals, publiſhed one after another, Year after Year, that he intends to print, by Subſcription, (Price one Guinea DOWN) a new Method of Short-Hand, which hath no more CHARACTERS in it than the Letters of the Alphabet, and that it anſwers all the ENDS of Short-Hand, and is PREFERABLE to all others extant, and particularly, that it EXCELLS the Methods of SHELTON, MASON, WESTON, &c. and that it is ſo EASY, that a SPECIMEN of the Writing will diſcover the Art. This obliged me, both for MY OWN Vindication, and the PUBLIC's Satisfaction, to publiſh, in all the News-Papers, Year after Year, that all Perſons were welcome to call, and ſee that Gentleman's WONDERFUL ALPHABET with SPECIMENS of the Writing, by it, written by ſome of that Gentleman's Scholars, whom I have ſince taught; by which means they might inſtantly judge, what they were to have for their GUINEA; (which is almoſt one Shilling, for every one of the 24 Letters of the Alphabet,) and might alſo judge, whether his Method was either SPEEDY, or LEGIBLE, or deſerved the NAME of Short-Hand: And that they might likewiſe ſee ſuch another Method of writing Short-Hand, by no more CHARACTERS than the Letters of the Alphabet, which was printed in the Year 1719, (about 24 Years ago,) and given away GRATIS, at the Sign of the ANODYNE-NECKLACE, without Temple-Bar; tho' that Gentleman, in his Propoſals, boaſts, that that Way of Writing, (uſeleſs as it is) is quite NEW, and wholly HIS OWN. I likewiſe publicly offered, in all the News-Papers, to lay that Gentleman FIFTY GUINEAS to ONE GUINEA, to write or compare with him: But the Gentleman did not think it proper to make any ANSWER to any one of the Particulars above-mentioned, which certainly he would, if he could, eſpecially when his Honour, Advantage, and his MOST EXCELLENT METHOD OF SHORT-HAND lay at Stake.

OBSERVATIONS on the Significations.

HAVING learn'd the Letters of the Alphabet, with all their ſeveral Joinings, in the Beginning, Middle, or End of Words, with the Prepoſitions and Terminations, you might now begin to write Short-Hand: But it is more proper, firſt to learn the Significations annexed to the firſt, ſecond, third, fifth, and ſixth Leſſons, in the fifth, ſixth, ſeventh, and eighth Pages, becauſe theſe Significations contain or make up, at leaſt, the third Part of any Engliſh Book, and then you will write with more Eaſe and Pleaſure.

OBSERVE, there are no new Characters amongſt the Significations.

AGAIN obſerve, the learning the Significations, or Words annexed to the Letters, double and treble Conſonants that begin and end ſhort Words, and to the Prepoſitions and Terminations, that begin and end long Words, is but little more Pains than learning to know, and make the Letters, Prepoſitions, and Terminations themſelves: For if you know how to make (k, l, ſl, ſm, ſp, &c.) in Short-Hand, without looking on, then you may eaſily remember, that (k) ſtands for (King,) (l) for (Lord,) (ſl) for (ſhall,) (ſm) for (ſame,) and (ſp) for (Spirit,) and ſo of all the reſt.

ALSO obſerve, when you come to learn the Rules how to write Short-Hand, you will find that all theſe Significations are moſt natural and rational, and not burdenſome to the Memory.

AND as for thoſe Letters, double and treble Conſonants, Prepoſitions, and Terminations, that ſtand for two or more Words, the Senſe and Connexion of the Diſcourſe will immediately diſtinguiſh and diſcover which of them they ſtand for: Yea, whenever you come to read what you have written, the Senſe will inſtantly force you to pronounce and read the right one firſt, and you will not, at that Time, in the leaſt think of its ſtanding for any Thing elſe. To illuſtrate and confirm this, only obſerve, that there is a very great Number of Words, in the Latin Tongue, that have two, three, four, or more different Significations: The ſame may be ſaid, concerning the Engliſh Tongue, eſpecially thoſe Words, called the Engliſh Particles, to wit, the Prepoſitions, Conjunctions, &c. which have two, three, four, or more different Acceptations and Meanings, as you may ſee, in that excellent Engliſh Grammar, compoſed by Mr. James Greenwood; beſides, there are a great many other Engliſh Words, which alter their Signification, according as they are uſed in the ſeveral Profeſſions, Arts, and Sciences, the ſame Word ſignifying one Thing in Divinity, another Thing in Law, and another Thing in Phyſic, Mathematics, Grammar, &c. and yet we find that the Senſe and Connexion of the Diſcourſe do immediately diſtinguiſh and diſcover which of them they ſtand for.

AGAIN obſerve, although theſe Significations are compriſed, in Long-Hand, in one Side of a Quarter of a Sheet of common writing Paper, in the tenth and eleventh Page, yet they do contain or make up, at leaſt, one third Part of any Engliſh Book; that is to ſay, take any Engliſh Book, whether it be of Divinity, Law, Hiſtory, Mathematics, &c. and pitch upon any Sentence or Page of theſe Books, and then number the Words therein, (Proper Names excepted,) and you will find, at leaſt, the third Part of that Number, among the ſaid Significations; and the Reaſon is plain, becauſe moſt of theſe Significations are pick'd Words, and are ſome of the principal Words in the Engliſh Tongue, and which every Sentence muſt contain more or leſs of them, in regard they are made up of theſe Words, called the SIGNS of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes, and Perſons, with the Particles, &c. Some of theſe Signs, you ſee, are among the Significations annexed to the Letters of the Alphabet, to wit, (be, can, canſt, had, hadſt, will, wilt, is, have, has, haſt, hath, was, waſt, were, wert, I, thou, you, ye, he, ſhe.) There are likewiſe ſome of the Particles, among the ſaid Significations annexed to the Letters of the Alphabet, to wit, (a, an, by, from, and, o, oh, of, here, hither, to, too, how, except, as.) Some more of theſe Signs and Particles, &c. are contained among the Significations annexed to the double and treble Conſonants, that begin and end ſhort Words; and to the Prepoſitions and Terminations that begin and end long Words.

Also obſerve, if you add (as you muſt do when there is Occaſion,) the (-ing, -ed, -eth, -er, -neſs, -ment, -able, -ful, -fully, -fulneſs, -leſs, -leſly, -leſneſs, -tion, -ation, -ution, &c.) to theſe Significations, then they will make up a great deal more than the third Part of any Engliſh Book; as for Example, you ſee that the Letter (x) ſtands for (accept;) therefore (accepting, accepted, accepteth, accepter, acceptable,) are written, by only joining the Terminations, (-ing, -ed, -eth, -er, -able,) to the ſaid (x;) and (Acceptation) is written, by putting a Dot (.) above the ſaid (x,) for the Termination (-ation;) and ſo of all the reſt of the Significations, as well as (accept.) So you may judge whether theſe Significations are not worth the Learning.

This ⌣ ſignifies, that the Words to which it is annexed, have the ſame, or much the ſame Meaning, as (can, canſt,) &c.

You may imagine that the Character for (ſtedfaſt) is (ſf.)

You know that the Letter (i,) ſtands for the Word (I,) the firſt Perſon ſingular; therefore you may imagine that the Prepoſition (if-) ſtanding for the Word (we,) the firſt Perſon plural, is a big (i.)

The Characters for (cannot) and (is not) are plain, if you compare them with the Character for (not,) the laſt Termination.

These Terminations that have a Line drawn after them thus (——) import that they have no Signification, in the Engliſh Tongue, annexed to them, and are only to be read as Terminations.

The Character for the Termination (-ment,) or the Signification (mount, amount,) is always drawn from the Bottom to the Top; but when it ſtands for the Significations (the, thee,) it is drawn from the Top to the Bottom.

I might have added theſe four, (care, cure, our, hour,) to (and ſo forth,) in the Alphabet, as well as in the Prepoſitions.

The Letters (-rt,) ending Words, ſtand for (Art,) a Science; and (ar-) beginning Words, ſtands for (are, art,) being.

THE Words (herefrom, acclaim, aſcription,) are ſeldom or never uſed.

YOU will ſee that there are 31 Characters, among the Significations annexed to the double and treble Conſonants that end Words, and to the Prepoſitions and Terminations, which are learned already among the other Significations, and are only inſerted again, in order to make up the Number of Characters in the ſaid three Leſſons. You may likewiſe ſee that there are about ten Terminations, which have no Significations annexed to them.

LEARN theſe five Leſſons of Significations, thus; Firſt, learn the Significations annexed to the Letters of the Alphabet, in this manner: Read the Significations of the firſt ſix of theſe Letters four times over; then ſhut the Long-Hand of theſe ſix, and try if you can read the Short-Hand of them, according to the ſaid Significations annexed thereto, firſt downwards, and then upwards; and ſo learn the next ſix the ſame way; and then try if you can read the Short-Hand of the twelve, downwards and upwards, without looking on the Long-Hand: Then learn the third ſix the ſame way; and then try if you can read the eighteen, downwards and upwards, without looking on the Long-Hand; and ſo on, till you are perfect in the Significations annexed to the Letters of the Alphabet. Learn the reſt of the Significations (annexed to the other four Leſſons,) in order, one after another, exactly the ſame way, only ſix of the Characters at a time. Be ſure to read ſuch as ſtand for for two or more Words, at leaſt three times over, thus; The Letter r) ſtands for (err, air, &c.) (err, air, &c.) (err, air, &c.) for the often repeating any thing ſerves very much to imprint it in the Memory. Again, be ſure always to keep a ſet Form, when you try to read the Significations annexed to every ſix, thus; (r) ſtands for (err, air, &c.) not thus, (air, err, &c.) nor any other way, but as they are placed; for it will be confounding, and you will never learn them perfectly, if you read them ſometimes one way, and ſometimes another.

THE ſetting down the Significations promiſcuouſly, in the ninth, tenth, and eleventh Pages, will ſerve as a School-Maſter to dodge you, and to try whether you are perfect in them or not. You muſt be very perfect in that puzzling Paper, ſo as to be able to read and write any thing therein at firſt Sight; only obſerve, when you read the Short-Hand of the puzzling Paper, you muſt only read the Significations without naming the Letters, Prepoſitions, or Terminations themſelves, that is to ſay, the Character for (ab-) muſt not be read thus, (ab-, about,) but thus, (about,) and ſo of all the reſt.

N. B. WHEN you are perfect in theſe Significations, then you not only know the third Part of any Engliſh Book, (as I ſaid before,) but you will begin to write by the Rules, Signs of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes, Perſons, &c. which will afford both Pleaſure and Profit; and you will every Day write and read better and ſwifter, and every Thing will ſeem daily more and more eaſy.

OBSERVATIONS on the Vowels Places.

YOU may perceive, by the firſt Page, that the Places of the five Vowels about the Letters, double and treble Conſonants, Prepoſitions, and Terminations, are as follow, to wit,

The Place of (a) begins exactly over-againſt the Top.
The Place of (e) begins exactly between the Top and Middle.
The Place of (i or y) begins exactly over-againſt the Middle.
The Place of (o) begins exactly between the Middle and Bottom.
The Place of (u) begins exactly over-againſt the Bottom.

YOU ſee that the five Vowels Places about (n) and (p,) are a little different from the reſt, becauſe they have no Deepneſs; and that in the double and treble Conſonants, the five Vowels are placed about the laſt Letter. Obſerve when you are to write any Letter or Character, or any other Thing in one of the five Vowels Places, be ſure that you begin it exactly in that Vowel's Place, let it end where it will: By this way of placing the five Vowels, there will no Characters be placed above or under other Characters in your Writing; and the Places are plain and diſtinct; tho' you will perceive afterwards, that I make but very little Uſe of the five Vowels Places in writing Engliſh. When you are to put any thing in one of the five Vowels' Place, be ſure to write it as cloſe to the foregoing Character as is poſſible; but when you think that the Character to be put in the Vowel's Place will come thro' the foregoing Character, then keep it at a little Diſtance, but ſtill begin it over-againſt the Vowel's Place, as in the Words (Might, Father, &c.) which you'll find in the 7th and 18th Verſes of the firſt Chapter of St. John's Goſpel, written by the general Rule. As (n, p) differ from the reſt of the Characters, as to the Vowels' Places, ſo they alſo differ as to the (-ation, -aſion, -aſon,) and (-ution, -uſion, -uſon;) for -ation, &c.) after (n) or (p) is made by putting a Dot (.) exactly above them at the left Hand; and (ution, &c.) after them, is made by putting a Dot (.) exactly underneath them towards the left Hand; and as for the Dot (.) the Sign of the Plural Number, you will ſee afterwards that you are directed to throw it away.

OBSERVATIONS on the General Rule, and Chapter written by it.

YOU ſee by this General Rule that there are no Vowels written, except they begin the Word; and that the Conſonants (j, v,) are written as well as the reſt of the Conſonants, either in the Beginning, Middle, or End of Words, as (jeſus, rejoice, give, &c.)

A WORD joined by a Hyphen (-) is reckoned as one Word, and wrote accordingly, as (Water-pot,) &c.

WHEN two Vowels come together in any Latin, &c. Word, and are both ſounded in different Syllables, then write the laſt Vowel in the the firſt Vowel's Place. You may do the ſame (if you pleaſe) in Engliſh Words, as you may ſee by the Examples of (ſuo, leonis, lion, poet,) at the Bottom of the Page following the Abſtract of the Dictionary; but I think it is needleſs to be ſo exact in common Engliſh Words. But be ſure to write Sirnames of Perſons, with uncommon proper Names of Men, Women, Places, &c. exactly by the General Rule, that is to ſay, by the Letters, Prepoſitions, and Terminations, without regarding any of the five Significations, or any of the ſhortening Rules. As for Example, the Sirname (Turner) muſt be written thus; firſt make the (t) and then put (rn) in the Vowel (u's) Place of (t,) and then join the Termination (-er) to (n.) By no means think that (Turner) is wrote thus (rnr,) becauſe (turn) is made by (rn,) as you will ſee among your Significations. Again, the proper Name (Eſrom) muſt be written thus; firſt make (eſr,) and then put (m) in the Vowel (o's) Place of (r:) Don't write it by the ſecond ſhortening Rule, by making (ſ) ſtand for (eſ,) for then it would read (ſerom,) as you may ſee at the Bottom of the Page following the Abſtract of the Dictionary. Again, ſuppoſe you were to write the Sirname (Mamuk,) firſt write (m,) and then write another (m) in the Vowel (a's) Place thereof, and then write (k) in the Vowel (u's) Place of the ſecond (m;) don't write it by the firſt ſhortening Rule, by making a large (m) ſtand for (mam), for although the Senſe and Connexion will immediately diſtinguiſh whether a large (m) ſtands for (mam, mem, mim, mom, or mum,) in any common Engliſh Word, yet they will not in Sirnames, &c.

MOREOVER, don't miſtake concerning the five Significations: As for Example, don't think that (And-) in (Andrew) in the 40th Verſe, muſt be made by (n,) becauſe the Word (and) is ſo made; for it is plain, that the (And-) in (Andrew) hath no relation to the Particle (and,) and ſo of other Words. But we do only ſo, when they have all one Signification, as (ſerve, -ing, -ed, -er, -ant, -ice, -iceable,) &c.

YOU ſee I have made two Dots (:) at the End of every Verſe for Diſtinction's ſake, and to ſave Room; but when we write in public, we either leave a little Space, about half an Inch at the End of every Sentence or Head, or otherwiſe we begin a new Line.

AGAIN, you will perceive that (comprehended, anſwered, followed, following, bear, verily, Nazareth, Jeruſalem, &c.) are ſhortened by (comprended, anſered, foled, foling, ber, verly, Naſreth, Jeruſlem,) tho' indeed I might have written them at length.

YOU will alſo perceive that (Chriſt) is twice ſhortened, and made by a (Croſs) thro' Miſtake, inſtead of writing it by (Kr) and (ſt) in the (i's) Place of the (r,) according to the ſaid General Rule; tho' you will ſee afterwards that (Chriſt) is ſhortened, and made by the ſaid (Croſs.)

OBSERVATIONS on the ſhortening Rules, Moods, Tenſes, &c.

THE ſeventh and eighth ſhortening Rules, concerning (through or thorough,) and (over,) might have been omitted, becauſe they are as well, if not better, done by the General Rule.

WHEN I mention VERB in the 15th, 16th, and 17th ſhortening Rules, I would be underſtood to take in Participles alſo, becauſe they partake of the Nature of the Verb, as (by coming forth, &c. taken up, &c.)

N. B. THE ſaid 16th ſhortening Rule may take in (off, on,) as well as (up, down,) as (cut off, put on, &c.)

OBSERVE, the SIGNS of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes, Perſons, &c. occurring in every Sentence, and pronounced, as it were, in one Breath, or as one Word, it was abſolutely neceſſary to find out a Method to ſhorten and join them all together in the Twinkling of an Eye, as you will ſee further in the Obſervations on the joining Rules.

AMONG the fifty-four Joinings, you may perceive that theſe four following are a little ſhortened, to wit, (ought to have, muſt have, ought to be, muſt be.)

REMEMBER, that (might,) when it ſtands alone, is written by a long (m,) and a (t) of an ordinary Length; but whenever any one, or more of the Signs of the Moods, Tenſes, Perſons, or Negative (not,) or the Verb, &c. are joined to (might,) either before or after (might,) then be ſure always to throw away the (t) in (might.) As for Example, (might have, might have had, might do, might have done, might be, might have been,) which you ſee are among the fifty-four; and ſo (might not, he might, he might not, might not he, might he, he might ſpeak, &c. muſt be writ without (t) in (might.)

YOU ſee that the (a) in (am,) and (i) in (it is,) are thrown away, becauſe they are ſometimes thrown away in Long-Hand, as (I'm not dull, 'tis not right, &c.)

OBSERVE, that ('tis, 'tis not,) are three times more uſed than any of the 2880 Joinings; therefore by no means write them with an exact (it) and (s;) neither write (I am, I am not, am I, am I not, am not I,) with the (a) in (am,) but write them exactly as in the 16th Page.

I HAVE deſignedly ſhortened the Perſons (it, us,) after (let) only, in the ſaid 16th Page.

YOU may likewiſe join all the Perſons and Negative (not) to the ſaid (let,) and that whether they go before or after the ſaid (let,) as, (I let, thou letteſt, they let not, &c.)

YOU will ſee among the Pronouns, that (m) ſtands for (him,) and a big (m) for (them.)

MAKE the (net) at leaſt the Length of two Short-Hand (n's.)

OBSERVATIONS on the Particles, Proper Names, &c.

YOU may remember I told you, that the five Significations contain or make up at leaſt one third Part of any Engliſh Book: I add further, that the nine Pages of Particles do likewiſe contain or make up at leaſt another third Part of any Engliſh Book, as is evident by comparing them together, ſo that both contain or make up at leaſt two Thirds.

BY Particles, I mean the four undeclined Parts of Speech, to wit, the Adverbs, Conjunctions, Prepoſitions, and Interjections.

THESE Particles denote the Time, Place, Manner, and other Circumſtances of any Action, Paſſion, &c. and muſt come in every Sentence; for without them no Sentence can ſubſiſt, in regard they are, as it were, the very Nerves and Ligaments of all Diſcourſe, and ſerve to join or connect Words or Sentences together, and to explain, extend, limit, determine, &c. their Signification. The other Parts of Speech, to wit, the Nouns, Verbs, Participles, &c. may fitly be compared to the Materials prepared for the Building; but the Prepoſitions, Conjunctions, &c. to the Mortar or Cement, which join and faſten theſe Materials together, and muſt come between every Stone in the Building.

THESE Words or Particles occurring ſo often, there was an abſolute Neceſſity for writing them ſhorter than could be done by your general or particular ſhortening Rules, by throwing away a Letter or two, which is the moſt natural and rational way of ſhortening Words, as is commonly done in the Long-Hand, or common way of Writing; tho' indeed, the Learner may, if he pleaſes, write theſe Particles exactly by the Rules; but then that would be more tedious, &c. and contrary to the Deſign of all Short-Writing, and will not agree with the joining Rules, which render the Method very ſpeedy and legible.

OBSERVE, I have inſerted the Engliſh Pronouns, and a few other Words among the Particles, becauſe they often occur.

WHEN I mention Adverbs as ſome of the Particles, I don't take in Adverbs ending in (-ly,) formed from Adjectives, as (meekly, wiſely, boldly, &c.)

THERE are about a Dozen of Words in the whole Book, which are ſeldom or never uſed in the Engliſh Tongue, ſuch as (anent) among the Particles, which ſignifies (concerning;) but I have inſerted them, becauſe they are ſome of the Law Terms uſed in Scotland.

N. B. THE five Significations, with the Particles, and all other ſhortened Words in the Dictionary, Abſtract, &c. will either read as they there ſtand, or they will ſpell, which the Senſe and Connexion will inſtanty diſcover: As for Example, (bl) among your Significations will either read (bleſs,) as it there ſtands, or it will ſpell and read (bell;) becauſe (b) ſounds (be,) or (l) ſounds (el.) So (bd) among the Particles, will either read (beſide,) as it there ſtands, or it will ſpell and read (bed,) and ſo of all all the reſt. But, as I ſaid before, the Senſe and Connexion will immediately diſcover which of them it ſtands for.

To learn theſe Particles, read the firſt Column of the firſt Page three or four times over carefully, then write the Short-Hand of it once over, and ſo of all the reſt of the Columns. And to try whether you are perfect in them, or not, ſhut the Long-Hand of the firſt Column, and try if you can read the Short-Hand; then ſhut the Short-Hand, and try if you can turn the Long-Hand into Short-Hand. Learn all the reſt of the Columns the ſame way, one after another. You muſt be ſo perfect in the Particles, as to be able to name any of them whenever you ſee them, and write down any of them when deſired; otherwiſe you will not underſtand, or be able to write by the joining Rules. If you do but once remember theſe Particles, you will every Day remember them better and better, becauſe, as I ſaid before, you will meet with them in every Sentence of any Engliſh Book you pitch upon to write out of.

THE proper Names of Men, Women, and Places, may be ſoon learned, becauſe they are almoſt all writ by the Rules, and ſhortened here, as in Round-Hand, to wit, by making (Ben. Edw. Edm.) ſtand for (Benjamin, Edward, Edmund, &c.)

THE reſt of the Names of Honour, Kindred, Sects, Offices, &c. are contained in the Dictionary.

BY, (&c.) in the Column of Kindred, as (Mother-in-Law,) &c. is meant, that you are to make (Brother-in-Law, Siſter-in-Law, Son-in-Law, Daughter-in-Law, &c.) the ſame way, by joining (Law) to (Brother, &c.) as well as to (Mother.)

As to the ſhortened Words in St. John's Goſpel: Practice being the only Thing which brings Perfection in all Arts and Sciences, eſpecially in Writing, but more eſpecially in Short-Writing, I have been at the Trouble and Charge in drawing out alphabetically all the Words in St. John's Goſpel, which are either ſhortened, or writ by the Rules, in the Compaſs of five Pages, and which may be eaſily learned by reading them twice or thrice over, and writing the Short-Hand of them once over. The Deſign thereof is, (after you are perfect in the firſt ſix Leſſons, with the five Significations, general and particular ſhortening and joining Rules and Particles,) that you may write every Day a Chapter of that Book, after the ſhorteſt way, by your Rules, &c. and read it afterwards; and by that means you will daily write and read better and ſwifter: For as to the Dictionary and Abſtract thereof, you have no occaſion to look into them till you have wrote over that Book, which contains about twenty-one Chapters, and then you may write out of any other Book, whether Hiſtory, Law, &c. and may have Recourſe to the Dictionary whenever you are in the leaſt Doubt how to write any Word by the Rules.

As to the Phraſes, they being deſigned for thoſe of the Clergy, and Writers of Sermons, may eaſily be learned by them, becauſe a great Part of them are done by the Rules, and ſo might have been omitted. And indeed, if they pleaſe, they may write them all by the Rules, for then they will not be tedious in Writing: As for Example, the Phraſe (he anſwered anſwered and ſaid unto them,) may be wrote by your Rules thus, (he anſwered,) in one Joining, and (and ſaid unto them,) in another Joining, and ſo of the reſt. Beſides, the Learner, by viewing the Specimen of the Writing, will perceive that there is no Occaſion for making any thing ſtand for Phraſes, for he will there find one or more Joinings in every ſhort Line, containing ſeveral Words in one, wrote without taking off the Pen, as it were, in the Twinkling of an Eye, and each of theſe Joinings can be taken aſunder, Word by Word, if required.

OBSERVATIONS on the Joining Rules, Specimen, &c.

AS to the Joining Rules, you may perceive that I have endeavoured to make them as plain as poſſible, and have added Variety of Examples, and a large Specimen of the Writing to illuſtrate them; but for further Explanation, obſerve what follows.

FIRST, There muſt never be more than one Verb, or one Participle in any Joining, except where (being or having) happens to come, as in the fifth joining Rule: As for Example, (I deſire you would not ſpeak to me,) or (I deſire that you would not ſpeak to me;) where (I deſire) muſt be in one Joining, and (you would not ſpeak to me,) or (that you would not ſpeak to me,) in another Joining. (I deſire you to recommend them,) thus, (I deſire you) in one Joining, (to) by itſelf, and (recommend them) in another Joining. (I perceived you going,) thus, (I perceived you) in one Joining, and (going) by itſelf. (I perceived you taking it) thus, (I perceived you) in one Joining, and (taking it) in another. (They perceived him ſpeaking unto you,) thus, (they perceived him) in one Joining, and (ſpeaking unto you) in another. (You ſaw them executed,) thus, (you ſaw them) in one Joining, and (executed) by itſelf.

SECONDLY, Obſerve, every Word in the Joining muſt belong to one another, and conſequently are pronounced without ſtopping, or drawing Breath, which leads me in the THIRD Place to obſerve, that none of the Joinings muſt go beyond any of the Stops (, ; : . &c.) So that whenever two, three, four, or more Nouns, Verbs, &c. come together in the ſame Sentence, then you muſt let every one of them ſtand by themſelves; becauſe one of the Stops, to wit, (,) muſt come between every one of them, or at leaſt be underſtood, as you will ſee by ſeveral Examples in the Specimen, particularly in the LEASE of a Houſe in London, where it runs thus: —— "Together with all Shops, Cellars, Sollars, Chambers, Rooms, Lights, Eaſements, Ways, Paſſages, Waters, Water-Courſes, Profits, Commodities, and Appurtenances whatſoever, &c." And in another Place thus: —— "Sufficiently repair, uphold, ſupport, ſuſtain, maintain, pave, purge, ſcower, cleanſe, glaze, empty, amend, and keep the ſaid Meſſuage, &c.

FROM this you may obſerve, that there is no Occaſion or Neceſſity for joining two or more of theſe Nouns or Verbs together in one, becauſe the Speaker is neceſſarily obliged to ſtop or draw his Breath after every one of them, and by that Means affords ſufficient Time for writing them down.

ALSO obſerve, that the Joinings, by this new Method, do, in a great Meaſure, ſupply or ſerve inſtead of the foregoing Stops.

N. B. THEY who know any thing of Grammar, muſt acknowledge, that the SIGNS of the Engliſh Moods, Tenſes, and Perſons, with the Particles, and Verb, muſt come in every Sentence, and that they are all pronounced at once, as it were, in one Breath, or as one Word, by the Speaker, (tho' he does not know what is meant by Moods, Tenſes, &c.) the natural Dependance and Connexion of theſe Words forcing him ſo to do; for if he was to pauſe or ſtop between theſe Words, as he may, and muſt ſometimes between other Words, then he would mar or ſpoil the Senſe and Connexion of the Diſcourſe: So that to keep equal Pace with a moderate Speaker, there was an abſolute Neceſſity for finding out a ſpeedy Method to join theſe SIGNS of the Moods, Tenſes, Perſons, &c. altogether in one, without taking off the Pen.

FROM hence I may infer, that any Method which directs us to ſtop or lift the Pen at every Word, is really very defective, and good for little, and will never anſwer the End of TAKING DOWN any Sermon, Speech, &c. unleſs the Writer could lay his Commands on the Speaker, to pauſe or ſtop at every Word of his Diſcourſe, as he does in his Writing.

AGAIN obſerve, as the SIGNS of the Moods, Tenſes, Perſons, &c. are pronounced as one Word, ſo is the Prepoſition and Pronoun governed by it, as, (againſt him, amongſt us, &c.) and likewiſe the Adjective and Subſtantive, as, (faithful Servant, &c.) and therefore ought to be joined.

I AM ſenſible that the Nouns agreeing with, and governed by the Verb, with the Noun governed by the Prepoſition, are pronounced at once, as well as the Pronouns: As for Example, (John reproved James, &c.) (againſt Samuel, &c.) are pronounced at once, as well as (he reproved him, &c.) (againſt him, &c.) but then it was impoſſible to join theſe Nouns, ſo as to be plain, becauſe of their great Number and Variety: But I have taken care to make the Perſons, (I, thou, he, &c.) with the reſt of the Pronouns, remarkably plain, becauſe they are but few in Number, and are ſix times more uſed than the Nouns; for if you caſt your Eye upon any continued Diſcourſe, you will find that the third Perſon, to wit, the Nouns, or Names, are ſeldom mentioned above once or twice, but are always afterwards ſet down, and ſignified by the Pronouns, (he, him, himſelf, his, his own, ſhe, her, herſelf, hers, her own, it, they, them, themſelves, theirs, their own, &c.) and as for the firſt and ſecond Perſons, they are conſtantly mentioned by (I, me, myſelf, mine, my own, we, us, ours, our own, &c. thou, you, thee, yourſelf, ye, yourſelves, &c.)

I HAVE likewiſe taken care to make the principal and moſt uſual Particles alſo remarkably plain, as, (not, never, always, &c.) but eſpecially the forty Prepoſitions mentioned in the ſixth joining Rule, becauſe they occur ſo very often; and, indeed, by the Help of theſe Words, the whole whole Engliſh Syntax, or Conſtruction of the Noun and Pronoun, is chiefly performed.

As to the Specimen, I have deſignedly engraved it in very large and ſtrong Characters, for the Advantage of the Learner; and have choſen different Chapters, that there might be a Variety in the Diſcourſe, the better to illuſtrate and exemplify the Rules; and for the ſake of the Gentlemen of the Law, who have much encouraged my Method, I have inſerted three of their Conveyances, or Securities, which, I am told, run much upon a ſet Form, and therefore, I thought it was unneceſſary, &c. to print them in Long-Hand; tho' they will find afterwards, when they have learned the Art, that it is as eaſy to write Law, Hiſtory, &c. as Divinity, becauſe the Rules ſerve for any Engliſh Book; and that every Engliſh Sentence muſt contain a Verb, and every Verb ſuppoſes a Mood, Tenſe, Perſon, &c. and ſo of the Adjective and Subſtantive, &c.

OBSERVE, the more ugly any Joining looks, that is to ſay, the farther it comes below the Line, it is the more remarkably plain.

WHEN you write in Public in a Hurry, keep the Lines of the Writing at a handſome Diſtance; but when you write at your Leiſure, keep the Lines a little cloſer; and if any Joining happens to come a little below the Line, do not keep the following Line wider becauſe of it, but keep all the Lines at an equal Diſtance, and paſs over that Part of the Writing which comes below the Line. See the Preface concerning the Characters.

AGAIN obſerve, tho' there be one or more of theſe Joinings in every ſhort Line of the Specimen, yet there are only five Sorts of theſe Joinings; and theſe five continually occur over and over. The firſt Sort is at the End of the third joining Rule, and the other four Sorts are contained in the fourth, fifth, ſixth, and ſeventh Joining Rules.

FINDING in the Acts of Parliament, and Law-Conveyances, or Securities, that the ſingular and plural Number are often both ſet down with the Particle (or,) and ſometimes (and) between them, in order to make the Expreſſion the more full and emphatical, therefore I think that a big Short-Hand (m) drawn thro' the ſingular Number, will ſerve well enough for the plural Number and the Particle, as you may ſee at the End of the Leaſe, in the Example of (any other Perſon or Perſons.)

OBSERVATIONS on the Dictionary, Abſtract, &c.

AS to the Dictionary and Abſtract thereof, ſee the Preface: It cannot be expected I ſhould have inſerted every Word, or all the (-ing, -ed, -er, &c.) for that would have been needleſs, &c. only obſerve, when you are to join (-ing, -ed,) or any thing elſe to a Word which ends with the Termination (-er,) made by the third Part of (m,) then change that third Part of (m,) and put (r) inſtead thereof.

THERE are a few Words that I have made two ways, as (Defendant,) &c. but I take that to be the beſt which is ſooneſt writ.

Digitized by Google

I HAVE here and there ſhortened a Scripture Phraſe, which the Writers of Sermons may with Pleaſure and Profit draw out on a Paper apart, or they may write them by their Rules.

OBSERVE, the Words in the Dictionary and Abſtract will either read as they there ſtand, or they will ſpell, which the Senſe will immediately diſtinguiſh.

I HAVE engraved the CHARACTERS ſo very large and ſtrong, in the Dictionary, Abſtract, Particles, &c. for the Advantage of the Learner, that it was impoſſible to put every Short-Hand Character exactly over-againſt the Long-Hand, which I hope the Learner will wink at, becauſe the Number is not great, and may be eaſily diſtinguiſhed.

As to the Law Words, Terms, and Writs, I have inſerted ſuch as do moſt uſually occur, and by which the Learner may be inſtructed to make the reſt.

As to the Law Phraſes, ſuch as (Quam diu ſe bene geſſerit, &c.) it is ſufficient to write only the firſt two Words with (&c.) after them, as you will ſee in the Page following the Dictionary.

YOU will ſee that ſome Words, beginning with (ſw, tw,) are made by (ſv, tv,) becauſe they are diſtinct, and ſhorter.

THERE are ſome ſhortened Words in the Dictionary which I have not put in the Abſtract, becauſe they may be writ (if you pleaſe) by your Rules; and indeed ſo may all the Words in the Abſtract, with the Page after the Abſtract: But it is better to write them as they are there ſhortened.

THE Abſtract may be learned as you did the Particles.

WHEN you are perfect, the Articles (a, an, the,) may be left out in Engliſh, as well as in Latin, and yet the Senſe not puzzled; that is to ſay, the Senſe and Connexion may as eaſily diſcover, whether the Engliſh Word (King) ſtands for (King,) (a King,) or (the King,) as well as the Latin Word (Rex) for (King,) a King,) or (the King.)

YOU may likewiſe leave out (of,) (of a,) (of an,) (of the,) the SIGNS of the Genitive Caſe, as well as you leave out ('s) the Sign of the ſame Caſe, when a Conſonant goes before the ſaid ('s.)

AND when (of) goes before (Chriſt,) leave out the (of,) and join the Character for (Chriſt) to the Word before (of,) as (the Merits of Chriſt, &c.) becauſe it will be very plain: But do not join the Characters for (Lord, God, &c.) to the Word before (of,) becauſe they will not be plain: Beſides, the leaving out of (the, of, of the,) before (Lord, God, &c.) will afford ſufficient Time to write them: Example, for (the Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Wiſdom,) write only (Fear Lord is Beginning Wiſdom.) See the Ten Commandments, Lord's Prayer, and Creed, at the End of the Specimen.

YOU may uſe the Contractions already invented by Capitals, if you think they are ſhort enough, as (F. R. S.) for (Fellow of the Royal Society,) (S. S. W.) for (South South Weſt, &c.)

NUMBERS, or Figures, being a kind of Short-Writing, cannot in ſome Reſpects be better ſhortened, as, (63752,) for (ſixty-three Thouſand ſeven seven Hundred and fifty-two.) But when the Number consists only of Millions or Thousands, I think it is better to write the Figures for the Number, and to write the Words (Millions, Thousands,) by the Characters made for them; as, (seven Million, or nine Thousand;) or (9000,) thus, (9...) (9006,) thus, (9..6) &c.

Digitized by Google

As for the Stops, (, ; &c.) I think there is not any Occasion for using them in this Art, only at the Beginning of every new Head, Verse, &c. leave a little Distance, about half an Inch, or begin a new Line, or make two Dots, thus (:)

LASTLY, Any who are altogether Strangers to the Latin Tongue, may peruse Mr. GREENWOOD's English Grammar, wherein he fully explains the eight Parts of Speech, to wit, Nouns, Pronouns, Verbs, &c. with the Moods, Tenses, &c. They ought likewise to keep by them Mr. BAILEY's English Dictionary, which explains all hard Words in the English Tongue.

DIRECTIONS for the right using of this Book.

FIRST, Take two Sheets of Paper, and make a Copy-Book in Quarto, and rule the first and second Pages with a Black-Lead Pencil; then begin and learn the first Lesson, to wit, the Letters of the Alphabet, thus; Write in one Line the twenty six Characters for the Letters of the Alphabet; then write one Line more of them, and so on, till you have finished these two Pages: Then try if you can write these twenty six Characters without looking on my Copy; and to dodge you therein, write a Page of any Book by the Letters of the Alphabet. Learn the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth Lessons, one after another, the same way. You must be very perfect in the first six Lessons, because they are the Foundation of the Art. Be sure to write slow and exact at first, for you will daily write swifter. Any who care not for being at the Trouble of making a Copy-Book, may have one of mine at a reasonable Price, which contains the first six Lessons at the Top, with faint Lines to write upon, and large Observations and Directions, all curiously engraved for the Use of my Scholars. When you have learned the Foundation, then learn the five Significations in Order, according to the Directions. After you have learned the Foundation and Significations, then you will find that all the Difficulty is over, because you will then begin to write, and every thing will seem daily more easy and pleasant. When you are perfect in the Significations, read over the Vowel's Places, General Rule, and first Chapter of St. John's Gospel written by it, and try to copy it over from my Copy, and then from the Bible, and afterwards compare it with the Copy: Then write a few Verses of the second Chapter, by the said General Rule. Afterwards read and learn the shortening Rules. Next learn the Moods and Tenses, with their Joinings; then learn the Particles; afterwards read and learn the joining Rules and Specimen, and try to copy over the Specimen from my Copy, and then from the Bible, and afterwards compare it with the Copy; then write about a Chapter every Day out of the Book of St. John's Goſpel, till you have finiſhed it; and read each Chapter after you have wrote it. Laſtly, learn the Abſtract of the Dictionary, as you did the Particles. Write exact and ſlow at firſt, as I ſaid before, for you will daily write and read better and ſwifter. It is not proper to begin to write in Public, until you are perfect in the Abſtract of the Dictionary, and can write a little ſwift, which may be known by getting one ſometimes to dictate, or read ſlowly to you, which will ſave you ſome Time and Trouble, and further your Learning.

and
